AN ACT to amend the public health law, in relation to requiring the department of health to provide educational materials on the department's website concerning the state's public drinking water systems and to participate in the federal water watch program

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 9 of section 1112 of the public health law, as added by section 1 of part M of chapter 57 of the laws of 2017, is amended to read as follows:

9. The commissioner shall work in consultation with the commissioner of the department of environmental conservation to develop educational materials, and may take into consideration recommendations of the drinking water quality council established pursuant to section eleven hundred thirteen of this title. Such educational materials shall be made available to the covered public water system and the general public , including through a link conspicuously noted on the department's website, relating to methodologies for reducing exposure to emerging contaminants and potential actions that may be taken to mitigate or remediate emerging contaminants. Such link shall also include access to basic system information, including system identification number, name and type; department contacts; public notices; violations; and enforcement actions taken by the state. The commissioner shall coordinate with the United States environmental protection agency to ensure that the information available may be accessed through the United States environmental protection agency's "Drinking Water Watch" website. The commissioner shall also provide the covered public water system with information
