Introduced by Sens. HAMILTON, CARLUCCI, ORTT -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Mental Health and Developmental Disabilities

AN ACT to amend the mental hygiene law, in relation to involuntary admittance

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 9.27 of the mental hygiene law is amended by adding 2 a new subdivision (j) to read as follows:

3 (j) When there is an initial involuntary admittance to an in-patient
4 facility pursuant to this section, the person's or the person's guardi-5 an's choice of facility shall be respected; provided, however, such 6 choice shall be subject to the facility's ability to provide the 7 person's necessary level of care and the availability of a bed within a 8 reasonable time period, and provided that honoring such choice would not 9 jeopardize the health and safety of the individual in the examining 10 physician's professional judgment taking into account mitigating factors 11 including but not limited to the individual's anticipated duration of 12 stay, and level of medical emergency.

13 § 2. Section 9.39 of the mental hygiene law is amended by adding a new 14 subdivision (d) to read as follows:

15 (d) When there is an initial involuntary admittance to an in-patient 16 facility pursuant to section 9.27 of this article, the person's or the 17 person's guardian's choice of facility shall be respected; provided, 18 however, such choice shall be subject to the facility's ability to 19 provide the person's necessary level of care and the availability of a 20 bed within a reasonable time period, and provided that honoring such 21 choice would not jeopardize the health and safety of the individual in 22 the examining physician's professional judgment taking into account
23 mitigating factors including but not limited to the individual's antic-24 ipated duration of stay, and level of medical emergency.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
