AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to establishing the New York state familial search policy and the release of information for familial DNA searches

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 13 of section 995-b of the executive law is amended by adding a new paragraph (e) to read as follows:

(e) (i) The DNA subcommittee shall provide nonbinding recommendations for a New York state familial search policy. The familial search policy shall include, but not be limited to, assessing and evaluating the accuracy of familial DNA searches, providing recommendations on the parameters for familial DNA searching, creating procedures for when familial searches should and should not be used, and determining the expected fiscal implications of conducting familial DNA searches in New York state.

(ii) For the accomplishment of its purposes, the DNA subcommittee shall be authorized and empowered to undertake any studies, inquiries, surveys or analyses it may deem relevant through its own personnel or in cooperation with or by agreement with any other public or private agency.

(iii) The DNA subcommittee shall meet and hold public hearings or private meetings and shall have all the powers of a legislative committee pursuant to the legislative law.

(iv) The commission shall make a report of the DNA subcommittees findings, including any recommendations for legislative action as it may

2 later than December first, two thousand seventeen.

3 (v) For purposes of this paragraph "familial DNA search" shall mean an 4 intentional or deliberate search of the DNA database conducted for the 5 purpose of potentially identifying close biological relatives of the 6 unknown forensic samples associated with the crime scene profile.

7 § 2. Subdivision 6 of section 995-c of the executive law is amended by 8 adding a new paragraph (d) to read as follows:

9 (d) (i) to a federal law enforcement agency, or to a state or local 10 law enforcement agency or district attorney's office for law enforcement
11 familial DNA searching purposes upon submission of a DNA record in 12 connection with the investigation of the commission of one or more
13 crimes, provided that there exists between the division and such agency
14 a written agreement governing the use and dissemination of such DNA
15 records in accordance with the provisions of this article;

16 (ii) Familial DNA searches may be conducted when a law enforcement
17 agency is investigating the commission of a violent felony offense as 18 defined in section 70.02 of the penal law, and where there is no match
19 of a single source DNA profile from the crime scene, and where all other
20 leads have been exhausted.

21 (iii) The commission, in conjunction with the DNA subcommittee, shall 22 create a New York state familial search policy to implement familial DNA
23 searching in the state of New York. The DNA subcommittee report, as 24 authorized in paragraph (e) of subdivision thirteen of section nine
25 hundred ninety-five-b of this article, may provide additional guidelines
26 and recommendations for the New York state familial search policy.

27 § 3. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after 28 it shall have become a law. Effective immediately, the addition, amend-
29 ment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implemen-
30 tation of this act on its effective date are authorized to be made and 31 completed on or before such effective date.
