LBD05327-04-7

1 Section 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "marihuana 2 regulation and taxation act".

3 § 2. Legislative findings and intent. The legislature finds that 4 existing marihuana laws have not been beneficial to the welfare of the 5 general public. Existing laws have been ineffective in reducing or curb-6 ing marihuana use and have instead resulted in devastating collateral 7 consequences that inhibit an otherwise law-abiding citizen's ability to 8 access housing, employment opportunities, and other vital services.
9 Existing laws have also created an illicit market which represents a 10 threat to public health and reduces the ability of the legislature to 11 deter the accessing of marihuana by minors. Existing marihuana laws have 12 also disproportionately impacted African-American and Latino communi-13 ties.

14 The intent of this act is to regulate, control, and tax marihuana in a 15 manner similar to alcohol, generate millions of dollars in new revenue, 16 prevent access to marihuana by those under the age of twenty-one years, 17 reduce the illegal drug market and reduce violent crime, reduce partic-18 ipation of otherwise law-abiding citizens in the illicit market, end the 19 racially disparate impact of existing marihuana laws and create new 20 industries and increase employment.

21 Nothing in this act is intended to limit the authority of any district 22 government agency or office or employers to enact and enforce policies 23 pertaining to marihuana in the workplace, to allow driving under the 24 influence of marihuana, to allow individuals to engage in conduct that 25 endangers others, to allow smoking marihuana in any location where smok-26 ing tobacco is prohibited, or to require any individual to engage in any 27 conduct that violates federal law or to exempt anyone from any require-28 ment of federal law or pose any obstacle to the federal enforcement of 29 federal law.

30 Nothing in this act is intended to limit any privileges or rights of a 31 medical marihuana patient or medical marihuana caregiver under the New 32 York Compassionate Care Act.

33 § 3. Section 3302 of the public health law, as added by chapter 878 of 34 the laws of 1972, subdivisions 1, 14, 16, 17 and 27 as amended and 35 subdivisions 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 11, 12, 13, 15, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 36 25, 26, 28, 29 and 30 as renumbered by chapter 537 of the laws of 1998, 37 subdivisions 9 and 10 as amended and subdivisions 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39 38 and 40 as added by chapter 178 of the laws of 2010, paragraph (a) of 39 subdivision 20, the opening paragraph of subdivision 22 and subdivision 40 29 as amended by chapter 163 of the laws of 1973, subdivision 31 as 41 amended by section 4 of part A of chapter 58 of the laws of 2004, subdi-42 vision 41 as added by section 6 of part A of chapter 447 of the laws of 43 2012, and subdivisions 42 and 43 as added by section 13 of part D of 20 6. In addition to the penalties otherwise provided in subdivision 21 three of this section, if a determination is made sustaining a charge of 22 illegally purchasing or attempting to illegally purchase an alcoholic 23 beverage or marihuana products, the court may suspend such person's 24 license to drive a motor vehicle and the privilege of an unlicensed 25 person of obtaining such license, in accordance with the following and 29 to paragraph (b) or (c) of subdivision three of this section, the court 30 shall impose such license suspension if it is found that a driver's

49 upon such identification and transaction scan. In evaluating the appli-

51 into consideration any written policy adopted and implemented by the 52 seller to carry out the provisions of this chapter. Use of a transaction 53 scan shall not excuse any licensee under this chapter, or agent or 54 employee of such licensee, from the exercise of reasonable diligence
55 otherwise required by this section. Notwithstanding the above

1 provisions, any such affirmative defense shall not be applicable in any 2 other civil or criminal proceeding, or in any other forum.

18 subdivision two of this section. No licensee or agent or employee of a 19 licensee shall resell or disseminate the information recorded during 20 such scan to any third person. Such prohibited resale or dissemination 21 includes, but is not limited to, any advertising, marketing or promo-

10 by public authority; and no such person shall be denominated a criminal 11 by reason of such determination, nor shall such determination be deemed 12 a conviction.

13 5. Whenever a peace officer as defined in subdivision thirty-three of 31 disposal of the alcoholic beverage or marihuana product seized and 32 ordering the return of that beverage or product. The court may order

22 if an annual license has been issued to the applicant. If an application 23 is submitted to a municipality under this paragraph, the bureau shall

33 this section. Nothing in this paragraph shall limit such relief as may 34 be available to an aggrieved party under section four hundred one of the 35 state administrative procedure act or any successor provision.

1 based upon the cost of enforcing this article and the size of the mari-

3 1. Each licensing authority shall charge each licensee a licensure and 4 renewal fee, as applicable. The licensure and renewal fee shall be 5 calculated to cover the costs of administering this article. The licen-6 sure fee may vary depending upon the varying costs associated with 7 administering the various regulatory requirements of this article as 8 they relate to the nature and scope of the different licensure activ-9 ities, but shall not exceed the reasonable regulatory costs to the 10 licensing authority.

11 2. The total fees assessed pursuant to this article shall be set at an 12 amount that will fairly and proportionately generate sufficient total 13 revenue to fully cover the total costs of administering this article.

14 3. All license fees shall be set on a scaled basis by the bureau, 15 dependent on the size of the business.

16 4. The bureau shall deposit all fees collected in the marihuana
17 control fund established pursuant to section eighty-two of the state 18 finance law.

19 § 191. Persons forbidden to traffic in marihuana. 1. The following 20 persons are forbidden to traffic in marihuana:

34 department of corrections and community supervision or a court of this 35 state pursuant to the provisions of article twenty-three of the 36 correction law to remove the disability under this section because of 37 such conviction; provided however that a corporation which otherwise 38 conforms to the requirements of this section and article may be licensed

41 permanent residence in the United States; and provided further that a 42 corporation organized under the not-for-profit corporation law or the 44 section and article may be licensed if each of its principal officers 45 and more than one-half of its directors are not less than twenty-one 46 years of age and none of its directors are less than eighteen years of 47 age; and provided further that a corporation organized under the not-48 for-profit corporation law or the education law and located on the prem-

54 chapter revoked for cause, until the expiration of two years from the 55 date of such revocation.

1 (ii) A person not licensed under the provisions of this chapter, who 2 has been convicted of a violation of this chapter, until the expiration 3 of two years from the date of such conviction.

4 (e) A corporation or co-partnership, if any officer and director or 5 any partner, while not licensed under the provisions of this chapter, 6 has been convicted of a violation of this chapter, or has had a license 7 issued under this chapter revoked for cause, until the expiration of two 8 years from the date of such conviction or revocation.

9 2. An applicant shall not be denied a state license under this article 10 if the denial is based solely on a conviction for a violation of article 11 two hundred twenty or two hundred twenty-one of the penal law.

12 § 192. Surrender of license; notice to police officials. Within three 13 days after a license shall have been revoked pursuant to this article, 14 notice thereof shall be given to the licensee by mailing such notice
15 addressed to him at the premises licensed. Notice shall also be mailed 16 to the owner of the premises licensed. The holder of such license shall 17 thereupon surrender same to the bureau. The mailing thereof by the 18 licensee to the bureau by registered mail or insured parcel post shall 19 be deemed sufficient compliance with this section. The bureau, imme-20 diately upon giving notice of revocation, shall serve a written notice 21 thereof upon the commissioner of police, chief of police or chief police 22 officer of the city, or village in which the premises for which the 23 revoked license was issued is situated, or upon the sheriff of the coun-24 ty or a constable of the town in case the license was issued for prem-
25 ises situated in a town and not within any city or village. Such notice 26 shall include a statement of the number of such license, the name and 27 place of residence of the holder thereof, the location of the licensed 28 premises, and the date when such license was revoked. In case such 29 license be not forthwith surrendered, the bureau shall issue a written 30 demand for the surrender of such license and deliver said demand to the 31 sheriff of the county in which the licensed premises are located, or to 32 any representative of the bureau, and said sheriff or representative 33 shall immediately take possession of such license and return the same to 34 the bureau.

35 § 193. Authority to promulgate rules and regulations. The bureau shall 36 promulgate and implement all rules and regulations as it deems necessary 37 to carry out the purpose and intent of this article.

38 § 194. Protections for the use of marihuana. Individuals and licensed 39 entities shall not be subject to arrest, prosecution, or penalty in any 40 manner, or denied any right or privilege, including but not limited to 41 civil liability or disciplinary action by a business or occupational or 42 professional licensing board or bureau, solely for conduct permitted 43 under this article. For the avoidance of doubt, the appellate division 44 of the supreme court of the state of New York, and any disciplinary or 45 character and fitness committees established by them are occupational 46 and professional licensing boards within the meaning of this section.
47 State or local law enforcement agencies shall not cooperate with or 48 provide assistance to the government of the United States or any agency 49 thereof in enforcing the Controlled Substance Act, 21, U.S.C. § 8012 et 50 seq., solely for actions consistent with this chapter, except as pursu-51 ant to a valid court order.

52 § 195. Discrimination protections for the use of marihuana or medical 53 marihuana. 1. No school or landlord may refuse to enroll or lease to and 54 may not otherwise penalize a person solely for conduct allowed under 55 sections 221.05 and 221.05-a of the penal law, except as exempted:

1 (a) If failing to do so would cause the school or landlord to lose a 2 monetary or licensing related benefit under federal law or regulations;

3 (b) If the institution has adopted a code of conduct prohibiting mari-4 huana use on the basis of religious belief;

5 (c) If a property is registered with the New York Smoke-Free Housing
6 Registry, it is not required to permit the smoking of marihuana products 7 on its premises.

8 2. For the purposes of medical care, including organ transplants, a 9 registered qualifying patient's authorized use of medical marihuana must 10 be considered the equivalent of the use of any other medication under 11 the direction of a practitioner and does not constitute the use of an 12 illicit substance or otherwise disqualify a registered qualifying 13 patient from medical care.

14 3. No person may be denied custody of or visitation or parenting time 15 with a minor, and there is no presumption of neglect or child endanger-16 ment for conduct allowed under sections 221.05 and 221.05-a of the penal 17 law, unless the person's behavior creates an unreasonable danger to the 18 safety of the minor as established by clear and convincing evidence. For 19 the purposes of this section, an "unreasonable danger" determination 20 cannot be based solely on whether, when, and how often a person uses 21 marihuana without separate evidence of harm.

22 § 196. Employment protections. 1. Unless an employer establishes by a 23 preponderance of the evidence that the lawful use of marihuana has 24 impaired the employee's ability to perform the employee's job responsi-
25 bilities, it shall be unlawful to take any adverse employment action 26 against an employee based on either:

27 (a) conduct allowed under sections 221.05 and 221.05-a of the penal 28 law; or

29 (b) the employee's positive drug test for marihuana components or 30 metabolites.

31 2. For the purposes of this section, an employer may consider an 32 employee's ability to perform the employee's job responsibilities to be 33 impaired when the employee manifests specific articulable symptoms while 34 working that decrease or lessen the employee's performance of the duties 35 or tasks of the employee's job position.

36 3. Nothing in this section shall restrict an employer's ability to 37 prohibit or take adverse employment action for the possession or use of 38 intoxicating substances during work hours, or require an employer to 39 commit any act that would cause the employer to be in violation of 40 federal law, or that would result in the loss of a federal contract or 41 federal funding.

42 4. As used in this section, "adverse employment action" means refusing 43 to hire or employ, barring or discharging from employment, requiring a 44 person to retire from employment, or discriminating against in compen-45 sation or in terms, conditions, or privileges of employment.

46 § 197. Protections for persons under state supervision. A person 47 currently under parole, probation or other state supervision, or 48 released on bail awaiting trial may not be punished or otherwise penal-49 ized for conduct allowed under sections 221.05 and 221.05-a of the penal 50 law.

51 § 198. Professional and medical record keeping. Any professional 52 providing services in connection with a licensed or potentially licensed 53 business under this chapter, or in connection with other conduct permit-54 ted under this chapter, and any medical professional providing medical 55 care to a patient, may agree with their client or patient to maintain no 56 record, or any reduced level of record keeping that professional and

1 client or patient may agree. In case of such agreement, the profes-2 sional's only obligation shall be to keep such records as agreed, and to 3 keep a record of the agreement. Such reduced record keeping is conduct 4 permitted under this chapter, and shall attract the protections of 5 section one hundred ninety-four of this article.

6 § 32. The state finance law is amended by adding two new sections 82 7 and 82-a to read as follows:

8 § 82. Marihuana control fund. 1. There is hereby established in the 9 joint custody of the commissioner of taxation and finance and the state

12 to be deposited pursuant to the provisions of section one hundred ninety 13 of the alcoholic beverage control law, and all other moneys credited or 14 transferred thereto from any other fund or source pursuant to law.

16 regulatory requirements of article eleven of the alcoholic beverage
17 control law. Moneys in the fund shall not be co-mingled with any other 18 state funds.

19 4. Moneys shall be paid out of the fund on the audit and warrant of 20 the comptroller on vouchers certified or approved by the chairman of the 21 bureau of marihuana policy.

18 are amended to read as follows:

19 (i) prior to the filing of an accusatory instrument in a local crimi-

21 such person. In such event, the prosecutor shall serve a certification 22 of such disposition upon the division of criminal justice services and 23 upon the appropriate police department or law enforcement agency which, 24 upon receipt thereof, shall comply with the provisions of paragraphs 25 (a), (b), (c) and (d) of subdivision one of this section in the same 26 manner as is required thereunder with respect to an order of a court 27 entered pursuant to said subdivision one~~[-]~~; or

28 (j) following the arrest of such person, the arresting police agency, 29 prior to the filing of an accusatory instrument in a local criminal

42 ~~ty-one~~] section 221.45 of the penal law on or after the effective date 43 of the chapter of the laws of 2017 that amended this subdivision or a 44 violation of sections 221.05, 221.10, 221.15, 221.20, 221.25, 221.30, 45 221.35, or 221.40 of the penal law prior to the effective date of the 46 chapter of the laws of 2017 that amended this subdivision; and (ii) the 47 sole controlled substance involved is [~~marijuana, (iii) the conviction~~

50 be required or permitted to waive eligibility for sealing pursuant to 51 this paragraph as part of a plea of guilty, sentence or any agreement 52 related to a conviction for a violation of section 221.45 of the penal 53 law. Any such waiver shall be deemed void and wholly unenforceable.

54 § 35. Subdivision 4 of section 160.50 of the criminal procedure law, 55 as amended by chapter 905 of the laws of 1977 and renumbered by chapter 56 142 of the laws of 1991, is amended to read as follows:

4. A person in whose favor a criminal action or proceeding was terminated, as defined in ~~[paragraph]~~ paragraphs (a) through (h), ~~(k) or (l)~~ of subdivision ~~[two]~~ three of this section, prior to the effective date of ~~[this section, may upon motion apply to the court in which such termination occurred, upon not less than twenty days notice to the district attorney, for an order granting to such person the relief set forth in subdivision one of this section, and such order shall be granted unless the district attorney demonstrates to the satisfaction of the court that the interests of justice require otherwise. A person in whose favor a criminal action or proceeding was terminated, as defined in paragraph (i) or (j) of subdivision two of this section, prior to the effective date of this section, may apply to the appropriate prosecutor or police agency for a certification as described in said paragraph (i) or (j) granting to such person the relief set forth therein, and such certification shall be granted by such prosecutor or police agency.]~~ the chapter of the laws of two thousand seventeen that amended this subdivision, and whose records have not been sealed pursuant to subdivision one of this section, may apply to have the records of such criminal action or proceeding sealed at the clerk's office for the court in which the criminal action or proceeding was terminated. Application may be made by the person or his or her attorney. Upon a determination by the clerk that the action or proceeding was terminated in the person's favor as defined in subdivision three of this section, the clerk of the court shall immediately notify the commissioner of the division of criminal justice services and the heads of all appropriate police departments and other law enforcement agencies that the action has been terminated in favor of the accused and that the record of such action or proceedings shall be sealed. Upon receipt of notification of such termination and sealing, all records relating to the criminal action shall be sealed, as required under paragraph (c) of subdivision one of this section, and all photographs, photographic plates or proofs, palmprints and fingerprints shall be destroyed or returned as specified in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subdivision one of this section. This paragraph shall not apply to cases in which the court declined to seal for reasons stated on the record, pursuant to subdivision one of this section. When an applicant under this subdivision presents to the court clerk fingerprint records from New York state division of criminal justice services or a court disposition which indicate that a criminal action or proceeding against the applicant was dismissed but the supporting court records cannot be located, have been destroyed, or do not indicate whether the dismissal was a "termination in favor of" the accused as that term is defined in subdivision three of this section, the clerk of the court wherein such criminal action or proceeding was terminated shall proceed as if the matter had been so terminated.

§ 36. Subdivisions 1 and 2 of section 170.56 of the criminal procedure law, subdivision 1 as amended by chapter 360 of the laws of 1977 and subdivision 2 as added by chapter 1042 of the laws of 1971, is amended to read as follows:

1. Upon or after arraignment in a local criminal court upon an information, a prosecutor's information or a misdemeanor complaint, where the sole remaining count or counts charge a violation or violations of section ~~[221.05, 221.10, 221.15, 221.35 or 221.40]~~ 221.45 of the penal law, ~~or upon summons for a nuisance offense under section sixty-five-c of the alcoholic beverage control law~~ and before the entry of a plea of guilty thereto or commencement of a trial thereof, the court, upon motion of a defendant, may order that all proceedings be suspended and

1 the action adjourned in contemplation of dismissal, or upon a finding 2 that adjournment would not be necessary or appropriate and the setting 3 forth in the record of the reasons for such findings, may dismiss in 4 furtherance of justice the accusatory instrument; provided, however, 5 that the court may not order such adjournment in contemplation of 6 dismissal or dismiss the accusatory instrument if: (a) the defendant has 7 previously been granted such adjournment in contemplation of dismissal, 8 or (b) the defendant has previously been granted a dismissal under this 9 section, or (c) the defendant has previously been convicted of any 10 offense involving controlled substances, or (d) the defendant has previ-11 ously been convicted of a crime and the district attorney does not 12 consent or (e) the defendant has previously been adjudicated a youthful 13 offender on the basis of any act or acts involving controlled substances 14 and the district attorney does not consent. Notwithstanding the limita-15 tions set forth in this subdivision, the court may order that all 16 proceedings be suspended and the action adjourned in contemplation of 17 dismissal based upon a finding of exceptional circumstances. For 18 purposes of this subdivision, exceptional circumstances exist when, 19 regardless of the ultimate disposition of the case, the entry of a plea 20 of guilty is likely to result in severe collateral consequences, includ-21 ing, but not limited to, those that could leave a noncitizen inadmissi-22 ble or removable from the United States.

23 2. Upon ordering the action adjourned in contemplation of dismissal, 24 the court must set and specify such conditions for the adjournment as 25 may be appropriate, and such conditions may include placing the defend-26 ant under the supervision of any public or private agency. At any time 27 prior to dismissal the court may modify the conditions or extend or 28 reduce the term of the adjournment, except that the total period of 29 adjournment shall not exceed ~~twelve~~ six months. Upon violation of any 30 condition fixed by the court, the court may revoke its order and restore 31 the case to the calendar and the prosecution thereupon must proceed. If 32 the case is not so restored to the calendar during the period fixed by 33 the court, the accusatory instrument is, at the expiration of such peri-34 od, deemed to have been dismissed in the furtherance of justice.

35 § 37. Section 210.46 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by 36 chapter 360 of the laws of 1977, is amended to read as follows:

37 § 210.46 Adjournment in contemplation of dismissal in marihuana cases 38 in a superior court.

39 Upon or after arraignment in a superior court upon an indictment where 40 the sole remaining count or counts charge a violation or violations of 41 section ~~[221.05, 221.10, 221.15, 221.35 or 221.40]~~ 221.45 of the penal 42 law and before the entry of a plea of guilty thereto or commencement of 43 a trial thereof, the court, upon motion of a defendant, may order that 44 all proceedings be suspended and the action adjourned in contemplation 45 of dismissal or may dismiss the indictment in furtherance of justice, in 46 accordance with the provisions of section 170.56 of this chapter.

47 § 38. Paragraphs (h) and (i) of subdivision 1 of section 440.10 of the 48 criminal procedure law, paragraph (h) as amended by chapter 332 of the 49 laws of 2010 and paragraph (i) as amended by chapter 368 of the laws of 50 2015, are amended and a new paragraph (j) is added to read as follows:

51 (h) The judgment was obtained in violation of a right of the defendant 52 under the constitution of this state or of the United States; ~~[or]~~

53 (i) The judgment is a conviction where the arresting charge was under 54 section 240.37 (loitering for the purpose of engaging in a prostitution 55 offense, provided that the defendant was not alleged to be loitering for 56 the purpose of patronizing a person for prostitution or promoting prostitution) or 230.00 (prostitution) or 230.03 (prostitution in a school zone) of the penal law, and the defendant's participation in the offense was a result of having been a victim of sex trafficking under section 230.34 of the penal law, labor trafficking under section 135.35 of the penal law, aggravated labor trafficking under section 135.37 of the penal law, compelling prostitution under section 230.33 of the penal law, or trafficking in persons under the Trafficking Victims Protection Act (United States Code, title 22, chapter 78); provided that

(i) a motion under this paragraph shall be made with due diligence, after the defendant has ceased to be a victim of such trafficking or compelling prostitution crime or has sought services for victims of such trafficking or compelling prostitution crime, subject to reasonable concerns for the safety of the defendant, family members of the defendant, or other victims of such trafficking or compelling prostitution crime that may be jeopardized by the bringing of such motion, or for other reasons consistent with the purpose of this paragraph; and

(ii) official documentation of the defendant's status as a victim of trafficking, compelling prostitution or trafficking in persons at the time of the offense from a federal, state or local government agency shall create a presumption that the defendant's participation in the offense was a result of having been a victim of sex trafficking, compelling prostitution or trafficking in persons, but shall not be required for granting a motion under this paragraph[-]; or

(j) The judgment occurred prior to the effective date of this paragraph and is a conviction for:

(i) an offense as defined by section 221.05 or 221.10 of the penal law (criminal possession of marihuana in the fifth degree), as in effect prior to the effective date of this paragraph, provided that the accusatory instrument that underlies the judgment does not include an allegation that the defendant possessed more than twenty-five grams of marihuana; or

(ii) an offense as defined by former section 221.35 of the penal law (criminal sale of marihuana in the fifth degree).

§ 39. Subdivision 6 of section 440.10 of the criminal procedure law, as added by chapter 332 of the laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:

6. If the court grants a motion under paragraph (i) or paragraph (j) of subdivision one of this section, it must vacate the judgment and dismiss the accusatory instrument, and may take such additional action as is appropriate in the circumstances.

§ 40. The criminal procedure law is amended by adding a new section 440.46-a to read as follows:

§ 440.46-a Motion for resentence; persons convicted of certain marihuana offenses.

1. A person currently serving a sentence for a conviction, whether by trial or by open or negotiated plea, who would not have been guilty of an offense or who would have been guilty of a lesser offense on and after the effective date of this section had this section been in effect at the time of his or her conviction may petition for a recall or dismissal of sentence before the trial court that entered the judgment of conviction in his or her case to request resentencing or dismissal in accordance with article twelve hundred twenty-one of the penal law.

2. Upon receiving a motion under subdivision one of this section the court shall presume the movant satisfies the criteria in subdivision one of this section unless the party opposing the motion proves by clear and convincing evidence that the movant does not satisfy the criteria. If

1 the movant satisfies the criteria in subdivision one of this section, 2 the court shall grant the motion to vacate the sentence or to resentence
3 because it is legally invalid. In exercising its discretion, the court 4 may consider, but shall not be limited to, the following:

5 (a) The movant's criminal conviction history, including the type of 6 crimes committed, the extent of injury to victims, the length of prior 7 prison commitments, and the remoteness of the crimes.

8 (b) The movant's disciplinary record and record of rehabilitation 9 while incarcerated.

10 3. A person who is serving a sentence and resentenced pursuant to 11 subdivision two of this section shall be given credit for any time 12 already served and shall be subject to supervision for one year follow-13 ing completion of his or her time in custody or shall be subject to 14 whatever supervision time he or she would have otherwise been subject to 15 after release, whichever is shorter, unless the court, in its 16 discretion, as part of its resentencing order, releases the person from 17 supervision. Such person is subject to parole supervision under section 18 60.04 of the penal law or post-release supervision under section 70.45 19 of the penal law by the designated agency and the jurisdiction of the 20 court in the county in which the offender is released or resides, or in 21 which an alleged violation of supervision has occurred, for the purpose 22 of hearing petitions to revoke supervision and impose a term of custody.

23 4. Under no circumstances may resentencing under this section result 24 in the imposition of a term longer than the original sentence, or the 25 reinstatement of charges dismissed pursuant to a negotiated plea agree-26 ment.

27 5. A person who has completed his or her sentence for a conviction
28 under the former article two hundred twenty-one of the penal law, wheth-
29 er by trial or open or negotiated plea, who would not have been guilty 30 of an offense or who would have been guilty of a lesser offense on and 31 after the effective date of this section had this section been in effect 32 at the time of his or her conviction, may file an application before the 33 trial court that entered the judgment of conviction in his or her case 34 to have the conviction, in accordance with article two hundred twenty-35 one of the penal law:

36 (a) Dismissed because the prior conviction is now legally invalid and 37 sealed in accordance with section 160.50 of this chapter;

38 (b) Redesignated (or "reclassified") as a violation and sealed in 39 accordance with section 160.50 of this chapter; or 40 (c) Redesignated (reclassified) as a misdemeanor.

41 6. The court shall presume the petitioner satisfies the criteria in 42 subdivision five unless the party opposing the application proves by 43 clear and convincing evidence that the petitioner does not satisfy the 44 criteria in subdivision five. Once the applicant satisfies the criteria 45 in subdivision five, the court shall redesignate (or "reclassify") the 46 conviction as a misdemeanor, redesignate (reclassify) the conviction as 47 a violation and seal the conviction, or dismiss and seal the conviction 48 as legally invalid under this section had this section been in effect at 49 the time of his or her conviction.

50 7. Unless requested by the applicant, no hearing is necessary to grant 51 or deny an application filed under subdivision five of this section.

52 8. Any felony conviction that is vacated and resentenced under subdi-53 vision two or designated as a misdemeanor or violation under subdivision 54 six of this section shall be considered a misdemeanor or violation for 55 all purposes. Any misdemeanor conviction that is vacated and resentenced 56 under subdivision two of this section or designated as a violation under

1 subdivision six of this section shall be considered a violation for all 2 purposes.

3 9. If the court that originally sentenced the movant is not available, 4 the presiding judge shall designate another judge to rule on the peti-5 tion or application.

6 10. Nothing in this section is intended to diminish or abrogate any 7 rights or remedies otherwise available to the petitioner or applicant.

8 11. Nothing in this and related sections is intended to diminish or 9 abrogate the finality of judgements in any case not falling within the 10 purview of this section.

11 12. The provisions of this section shall apply equally to juvenile 12 delinquency adjudications and dispositions under section five hundred 13 one-e of the executive law if the juvenile would not have been guilty of 14 an offense or would have been guilty of a lesser offense under this 15 section had this section been in effect at the time of his or her 16 conviction.

17 13. The office of court administration shall promulgate and make 18 available all necessary forms to enable the filing of the petitions and 19 applications provided in this section no later than sixty days following 20 the effective date of this section.
