2017-2018 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

January 19, 2017

Introduced by Sens. SERRANO, AVELLA, HAMILTON, HOYLMAN, KRUEGER, PERALTA, SAVINO -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Housing, Construction and Community Development

AN ACT to amend the administrative code of the city of New York and the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-four, in relation to limiting rent increase after vacancy of a housing accommodation

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Paragraph 5-a of subdivision c of section 26-511 of the 2 administrative code of the city of New York, as amended by section 16-a 3 of part A of chapter 20 of the laws of 2015, is amended to read as 4 follows:

5 (5-a) provides that, notwithstanding any provision of this chapter, 6 the legal regulated rent for any vacancy lease entered into after the 7 effective date of this paragraph shall be as hereinafter provided in 8 this paragraph. The previous legal regulated rent for such housing
9 accommodation shall be increased by the following: (i) if the vacancy 10 lease is for a term of two years, [~~twenty~~ ten percent of the previous 11 legal regulated rent; or (ii) if the vacancy lease is for a term of one 12 year the increase shall be [~~twenty~~ ten percent of the previous legal 13 regulated rent less an amount equal to the difference between (a) the 14 two year renewal lease guideline promulgated by the guidelines board of 15 the city of New York applied to the previous legal regulated rent and 16 (b) the one year renewal lease guideline promulgated by the guidelines
17 board of the city of New York applied to the previous legal regulated
18 rent. However, where the amount charged and paid by the prior tenant 19 pursuant to paragraph fourteen of this subdivision, was less than the 20 legal regulated rent, such increase to the legal regulated rent shall 21 not exceed: five percent of the previous legal regulated rent if the 22 last vacancy lease commenced less than two years ago; ten percent of the

1 previous legal regulated rent if the last vacancy lease commenced less
2 than three years ago; fifteen percent of the previous legal regulated
3 rent if the last vacancy lease commenced less than four years ago; twen-
4 ty percent of the previous legal regulated rent if the last vacancy
5 lease commenced four or more years ago. In addition, if the legal regu-
6 lated rent was not increased with respect to such housing accommodation
7 by a permanent vacancy allowance within eight years prior to a vacancy 8 lease executed on or after the effective date of this paragraph, the 9 legal regulated rent may be further increased by an amount equal to the 10 product resulting from multiplying such previous legal regulated rent by 11 six-tenths of one percent and further multiplying the amount of rent
12 increase resulting therefrom by the greater of (A) the number of years 13 since the imposition of the last permanent vacancy allowance, or (B) if 14 the rent was not increased by a permanent vacancy allowance since the 15 housing accommodation became subject to this chapter, the number of 16 years that such housing accommodation has been subject to this chapter.
17 Provided that if the previous legal regulated rent was less than three 18 hundred dollars the total increase shall be as calculated above plus one 19 hundred dollars per month. Provided, further, that if the previous legal 20 regulated rent was at least three hundred dollars and no more than five 21 hundred dollars in no event shall the total increase pursuant to this 22 paragraph be less than one hundred dollars per month. Such increase 23 shall be in lieu of any allowance authorized for the one or two year 24 renewal component thereof, but shall be in addition to any other 25 increases authorized pursuant to this chapter including an adjustment 26 based upon a major capital improvement, or a substantial modification or 27 increase of dwelling space or services, or installation of new equipment 28 or improvements or new furniture or furnishings provided in or to the 29 housing accommodation pursuant to this section. The increase authorized 30 in this paragraph may not be implemented more than one time in any 31 calendar year, notwithstanding the number of vacancy leases entered into 32 in such year.

33 § 2. Subdivision (a-1) of section 10 of section 4 of chapter 576 of 34 the laws of 1974, constituting the emergency tenant protection act of 35 nineteen seventy-four, as amended by section 16-b of part A of chapter 36 20 of the laws of 2015, is amended to read as follows:

37 (a-1) provides that, notwithstanding any provision of this act, the 38 legal regulated rent for any vacancy lease entered into after the effec-39 tive date of this subdivision shall be as hereinafter set forth. The 40 previous legal regulated rent for such housing accommodation shall be 41 increased by the following: (i) if the vacancy lease is for a term of 42 two years, [~~twenty~~ ten] percent of the previous legal regulated rent; or 43 (ii) if the vacancy lease is for a term of one year the increase shall 44 be [~~twenty~~ ten] percent of the previous legal regulated rent less an 45 amount equal to the difference between (a) the two year renewal lease 46 guideline promulgated by the guidelines board of the county in which the 47 housing accommodation is located applied to the previous legal regulated 48 rent and (b) the one year renewal lease guideline promulgated by the 49 guidelines board of the county in which the housing accommodation is 50 located applied to the previous legal regulated rent. However, where the 51 amount charged and paid by the prior tenant pursuant to paragraph four-52 teen of this subdivision, was less than the legal regulated rent, such 53 increase to the legal regulated rent shall not exceed: five percent of 54 the previous legal regulated rent if the last vacancy lease commenced
55 less than two years ago; ten percent of the previous legal regulated 56 rent if the last vacancy commenced less than three years ago; fifteen

1 percent of the previous legal regulated rent if the last vacancy lease 2 commenced less than four years ago; twenty percent of the previous legal 3 regulated rent if the last vacancy lease commenced four or more years
4 ago. In addition, if the legal regulated rent was not increased with 5 respect to such housing accommodation by a permanent vacancy allowance 6 within eight years prior to a vacancy lease executed on or after the 7 effective date of this subdivision, the legal regulated rent may be 8 further increased by an amount equal to the product resulting from 9 multiplying such previous legal regulated rent by six-tenths of one 10 percent and further multiplying the amount of rent increase resulting 11 therefrom by the greater of (A) the number of years since the imposition 12 of the last permanent vacancy allowance, or (B) if the rent was not 13 increased by a permanent vacancy allowance since the housing accommo-
14 dation became subject to this act, the number of years that such housing
15 accommodation has been subject to this act. Provided that if the previ-
16 ous legal regulated rent was less than three hundred dollars the total 17 increase shall be as calculated above plus one hundred dollars per 18 month. Provided, further, that if the previous legal regulated rent was 19 at least three hundred dollars and no more than five hundred dollars in 20 no event shall the total increase pursuant to this subdivision be less 21 than one hundred dollars per month. Such increase shall be in lieu of 22 any allowance authorized for the one or two year renewal component ther-23 eof, but shall be in addition to any other increases authorized pursuant 24 to this act including an adjustment based upon a major capital improve-25 ment, or a substantial modification or increase of dwelling space or 26 services, or installation of new equipment or improvements or new furni-27 ture or furnishings provided in or to the housing accommodation pursuant 28 to section six of this act. The increase authorized in this subdivision 29 may not be implemented more than one time in any calendar year, notwith-
30 standing the number of vacancy leases entered into in such year.

31 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately; provided that the amend-32 ments to section 26-511 of the rent stabilization law of nineteen 33 hundred sixty-nine made by section one of this act shall expire on the 34 same date as such law expires and shall not affect the expiration of 35 such law as provided under section 26-520 of such law; and provided, 36 further, that the amendments to section 4 of the emergency tenant
37 protection act of nineteen seventy-four made by section two of this act 38 shall expire on the same date as such act expires and shall not affect 39 the expiration of such act as provided in section 17 of chapter 576 of 40 the laws of 1974.
