Introduced by Sen. PERALTA -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Labor

AN ACT to amend the labor law, in relation to requiring prevailing wages to be paid on certain state university of New York projects

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The labor law is amended by adding a new section 220-i to read as follows:

§ 220-i. Payment of prevailing wages required on certain state university of New York projects. Notwithstanding any agreement to the contrary, all agreements, leases, grants, bonds, covenant debt agreements or permits entered into by and between the dormitory authority, the state university of New York or the state university construction fund and any third party for the demolition, excavation, design, construction, reconstruction, repair, rehabilitation, alteration or improvement of buildings or facilities at a site owned or leased by the state university of New York shall require the payment of all applicable prevailing wages pursuant to section two hundred twenty of this article and all parties to such agreements shall specifically agree to the enforcement of prevailing wages for such projects by the department.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
