2017-2018 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

January 20, 2017

Introduced by Sens. KRUEGER, HOYLMAN, PERKINS, SERRANO, SQUADRON -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Judiciary

AN ACT to amend the real property law, in relation to prohibiting certain prior housing court proceedings from being considered by landlords in the lease of property for residential purposes

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Legislative intent. The legislature hereby finds that some 2 landlords refuse to offer available units because prospective tenants
3 have previously been party to a judicial proceeding arising from a 4 dispute between themselves and a prior landlord, and also finds that 5 tenant screening reports are also being used by some landlords to inap-
6 propriately blacklist some prospective tenants. The legislature 7 believes that a tenant's prior appearance in a judicial proceeding is 8 not worthy of consideration when a landlord is reviewing a prospective 9 tenant's application, except under the limited circumstances permitted 10 by this act.

11 § 2. The real property law is amended by adding a new section 235-h to 12 read as follows:

13 § 235-h. Unlawful refusal to rent to a prospective tenant. 1. As used 14 in this section, the terms:

15 (a) "housing accommodation" includes any building, structure, or 16 portion thereof which is used or occupied or is intended, arranged or 17 designed to be used or occupied, as the home, residence or sleeping 18 place of one or more human beings.

19 (b) "tenant screening report" means any written, oral, or other commu-
20 nication of any information by a consumer reporting agency bearing on a 21 consumer's credit worthiness, credit standing, credit capacity, charac-
22 ter, general reputation, personal characteristics, history of contact 23 with any housing, civil or criminal court of any state, or mode of 16 based, wholly or in part, on information obtained from a tenant screen-

17 ing report. It shall also be unlawful to do so based on any information 18 indicating that such person was a litigant in an action or proceeding
19 brought under article seven of the real property actions and proceeding 20 law or section one hundred ten of the New York city civil court act in 21 the supreme court or in the housing part of the New York city civil

31 stipulation, consent decree, or any other agreement consenting to a 32 judgment of possession.

33 3. Any person aggrieved by a violation of this section may maintain an 34 action in any court of competent jurisdiction for:

35 (a) an injunction to enjoin and restrain such unlawful practice;
