Introduced by Sens. KRUEGER, BAILEY, HAMILTON, HOYLMAN, SERRANO -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Judiciary

AN ACT to amend the real property law, in relation to fees landlords may charge tenants

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The real property law is amended by adding a new section 220-a to read as follows:

§ 220-a. Application fees. 1. Wherever used in this section:

a. "application fee" means any application processing fee or credit check charge or similar charge that a potential tenant must pay or is in any way requested to pay to a landlord in order to be considered for rental or lease of any real property or portion thereof used for residential purposes.

b. "potential tenant" means any person with an intention to lease or rent any real property or portion thereof for residential purposes, excluding potential tenant shareholders of cooperative housing corporations.

c. "landlord" means any owner, managing agent or prime lessor of real property or any real estate broker, provided, that this section shall not limit the fee that can be lawfully charged by such broker if the potential tenant enters into a lease or occupies real property for residential purposes as a result of the broker's services.

2. A landlord may charge a potential tenant an application fee equal to the actual cost of a credit check or other related services paid for by a landlord to a third party.

3. Where a landlord charges application fees in violation of this section, a potential tenant may file a complaint with the division of housing and community renewal. Upon a finding by the division that a landlord has violated the provisions of this section, the division shall
