2017-2018 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

January 20, 2017

Introduced by Sen. SERINO -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Labor

AN ACT to amend the labor law, in relation to crediting an employer determined by a referee to not be liable for payment of contributions of unemployment insurance

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 623 of the labor law is amended by adding a new subdivision 3 to read as follows:

3. (a) Within sixty days of the decision of a referee, in which the employer is not liable for the payment of contributions and an appeal has not been filed, then an employer's account shall cease to be charged.

(b) Within ninety days of the decision of a referee, in which the employer is not liable for the payment of contributions and an appeal has not been filed, then an employer's account shall be refunded for payments that the employer was deemed not liable.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
