

STATE OF NEW YORK

3401

2017-2018 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

January 23, 2017

Introduced by Sen. PARKER -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Aging

AN ACT to amend the elder law, the penal law, the criminal procedure law and the state finance law, in relation to crime prevention and control; and providing for the repeal of such provisions upon expiration thereof

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The elder law is amended by adding a new article 3 to read
2 as follows:

ARTICLE III

ELDERLY CRIME PREVENTION AND CONTROL TRUST FUND ACT

Section 301. Short title.

302. Legislative finding and declaration.

303. Definitions.

304. Administration of trust fund.

305. Application procedures.

306. Rules and regulations.

307. Reporting.

308. Legislative hearings.

13 § 301. Short title. This article shall be known and may be cited as 14 the "Elderly Crime Prevention and Control Trust Fund Act".

15 § 302. Legislative finding and declaration. This legislature does 16 hereby find and declare that the elderly population of this state, which 17 for the purposes of this article is defined as individuals over the age
18 of sixty-two years, is uniquely vulnerable to actual and potential crim-
19 inal victimization by virtue of physical frailty, concentrations in high
20 risk urban neighborhoods, and socio-economic household factors advertis-
21 ing seniors as high visibility crime targets. This heightened vulner-
22 ability acts as a precursor for a generalized and debilitating sense of 23 fear which impacts on mobility, concepts of self-worth, and isolation
24 from the larger society. The legislature further finds and declares that 25 on the basis of available demographic information, the elderly popu-
26 lation of this state will continue to expand, thus requiring that the

1 problem of criminal victimization of the elderly be a focus of continu-
2 ing and paramount concern. This legislature further finds that although
3 the state's commitment of general revenue funds to the criminal justice
4 system has increased nearly three-fold in the past decade, crime
5 prevention and control activities targeted to our elderly population
6 have been wedded to moneys originating within the federal system. Addi-
7 tionally, statistical trends in the criminal victimization of the elder-
8 ly promise a continued escalation in seemingly rampant crime rates
9 despite the best efforts of law enforcement and community based organ-
10 izations. These findings, coupled with the philosophic shifts occurring 11 on a national level, mandate that responsibility for the safety and 12 well-being of elderly citizens rests principally with this legislature.
13 In response to that obligation, this legislature does hereby declare
14 and endorse the establishment of an exclusive dedicated revenue source
15 for the operation and maintenance of crime prevention, detection, and 16 enforcement activities for the sole benefit of elderly citizens in this 17 state.

18 § 303. Definitions. For the purposes of this article:

19 1. "Elderly person" means a person sixty-two years of age or older.

20 2. "Commissioner" means the chief administrative officer of the divi-

27 control trust fund, which is established pursuant to section ninety-sev-
28 en-pppp of the state finance law shall be administered and supervised

7 purposes to fifty per centum of the grant award; provided, however, if

9 ization shall match the state grant award with equal local resources,
10 seventy-five per centum may be used for administrative purposes.

11 § 307. Reporting. Grant recipients shall bi-annually provide the 12 commissioner such data as to reasonably reflect the funded program
13 activities for the inclusive period of January first through June thir-
14 tieth, and July first through December thirty-first of each calendar

38 legislative committee hearings shall be conducted at the pleasure and 39 convenience of the appropriate committee chairpersons.

40 3. Expenses attendant to legislative hearings conducted pursuant to 41 this article shall be borne by the division of criminal justice
42 services.

43 § 2. The penal law is amended by adding a new section 80.20 to read as 44 follows:
