AN ACT to amend the multiple dwelling law, in relation to fire insurance policies on occupied multiple dwellings

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The multiple dwelling law is amended by adding a new section 308-a to read as follows:

§ 308-a. Fire insurance contracts required; proceeds thereof. 1. Any owner of a multiple dwelling must procure a policy of fire insurance thereon and continue the same in full force and effect at all times during the occupancy of such multiple dwelling by one or more tenants at a value equivalent at all times to the full replacement value thereof.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, the proceeds of any fire insurance contract on a multiple dwelling shall be used to restore the damaged property to a habitable condition at least equivalent to the condition of such multiple dwelling prior to the loss.

3. If a multiple dwelling is to be occupied as such after a loss reimbursable pursuant to such fire insurance contract, any person who was a tenant thereof at the time of the loss and shares no responsibility therefor shall have the opportunity to continue his or her occupancy after restoration for the duration of his or her lease under the same terms and conditions as before said loss.

4. Any provision in a sales contract, mortgage indenture, lease or other document contrary to the provisions of this section shall be void as against public policy.

5. Any failure on the part of an owner of a multiple dwelling to comply with the provisions of this section shall cause him or her to be guilty of a misdemeanor.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
