a net operating loss carryback pursuant to section sixty four hundred eleven of the internal revenue code shall be treated as a final determi-3 nation for purposes of this section. Any taxpayer filing an amended federal income tax return and any employer filing an amended federal return of income tax withheld shall also file within ninety days thereafter an amended return under this article, and shall give such informa-7 tion as the commissioner may require. The commissioner may by regulation prescribe such exceptions to the requirements of this section as he or 9 she deems appropriate. For purposes of this section, (i) the term 10 "taxpayer" shall include a partnership having a resident partner or 11 having any income derived from New York sources, and a corporation with respect to which the taxable year of such change, correction, disallow-12 13 ance or amendment is a year with respect to which the election provided 14 for in subsection (a) of section six hundred sixty of this article is in 15 effect, and (ii) the term "federal income tax return" shall include the 16 returns of income required under sections six thousand thirty-one and six thousand thirty-seven of the internal revenue code. In the case of 17 such a corporation, such report shall also include any change or 18 correction of the taxes described in paragraphs two and three of 19 20 subsection (f) of section thirteen hundred sixty-six of the internal 21 revenue code. Reports made under this section by a partnership or corporation shall indicate the portion of the change in each item of income, 22 gain, loss or deduction (and, in the case of a corporation, of each 23 24 change in, or disallowance of a claim for credit or refund of, a tax 25 referred to in the preceding sentence) allocable to each partner or 26 shareholder and shall set forth such identifying information with 27 respect to such partner or shareholder as may be prescribed by the 28 commissioner.

§ 2. Subsection (a) of section 1087 of the tax law, as amended by section 9 of part H of chapter 1 of the laws of 2003, is amended to read as follows:

32 (a) General.--Claim for credit or refund of an overpayment of tax 33 under article nine or nine-A shall be filed by the taxpayer within (i) three years from the time the return was filed, (ii) two years from the 34 35 time the tax was paid or (iii) in the case of any overpayment arising 36 from an erroneous denial by the department of environmental conservation of a certification of completion pursuant to section 27-1419 of the 38 environmental conservation law, two years from the time a final determi-39 nation to the effect that such denial was erroneous is made and is no longer subject to judicial review, whichever of such periods expires the 40 latest, or if no return was filed, within two years from the time the 41 tax was paid. If the claim is filed within the three year period, the 42 43 amount of the credit or refund shall not exceed the portion of the tax 44 paid within the three years immediately preceding the filing of the claim plus the period of any extension of time for filing the return. If 45 46 the claim is not filed within the three year period, but is filed within 47 the two year period, the amount of the credit or refund shall not exceed 48 the portion of the tax paid during the two years immediately preceding the filing of the claim. In the case of a claim for credit or refund 49 filed within the period prescribed in paragraph (iii) 50 subsection, the amount of the credit or refund may exceed the portion of 51 52 the tax paid within the applicable period specified in the two immediately preceding sentences, but only to the extent of the amount of the 54 overpayment attributable to the denial described in such paragraph (iii). Except as otherwise provided in this section, if no claim is 55 56 filed, the amount of a credit or refund shall not exceed the amount
