AN ACT to amend the social services law and the public health law, in relation to pediatric day-respite centers and care

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The social services law is amended by adding a new section 2 367-j to read as follows:

3 § 367-j. Pediatric day-respite centers and care. 1. As used in this 4 section, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

5 (a) "Pediatric day-respite center" means a facility that provides a
6 structured day program of therapeutic social, developmental, and educa-
7 tional activities and programs, as well as onsite health care and pedia-8 tric day-respite services for up to ten consecutive hours per day to 9 medically fragile children under twenty-one years of age.

10 (b) "Pediatric day-respite care" means up to ten consecutive hours of 11 daytime relief for a medically fragile child's parent or guardian, and 12 developmentally appropriate programming for the child, including but not 13 limited to pediatric nursing services and supervision, meals, social 14 activities, and group educational enrichment programs.

15 (c) "Medically fragile child" means a child under twenty-one years of 16 age who is at risk of hospitalization or institutionalization, including 17 but not limited to a child who is technologically-dependent for life or 18 health-sustaining functions, requires a complex medication regimen or 19 medical interventions to maintain or to improve his or her health
20 status, or is in need of ongoing assessment or intervention to prevent 21 serious deterioration of his or her health status or medical compli-
22 cations that place his or her life, health or development at risk, but 23 who is capable of being cared for at home (including if provided with

23 limited to pediatric nursing services and supervision, meals, social 24 activities, and group educational enrichment programs.

25 (c) "Medically fragile child" means a child under twenty-one years of 26 age who is at risk of hospitalization or institutionalization, including 27 but not limited to a child who is technologically-dependent for life or 28 health-sustaining functions, requires a complex medication regimen or 29 medical interventions to maintain or to improve his or her health
30 status, or is in need of ongoing assessment or intervention to prevent
31 serious deterioration of his or her health status or medical compli-
32 cations that place his or her life, health or development at risk, but 33 who is capable of being cared for at home (including if provided with 34 appropriate home care services, including but not limited to case 35 management services and continuous nursing services).

36 2. Services, including nursing services, that (a) would otherwise be 37 reimbursable under this title, (b) are pediatric day-respite care, (c) 38 are provided at a pediatric day-respite center, and (d) are provided to 39 a medically fragile child enrolled in a child health insurance plan
40 under this title, shall be reimbursable under this title.

41 3. The commissioner shall make regulations under this section, includ-
42 ing procedures and requirements for an entity to qualify as a pediatric 43 day-respite center.

44 § 3. This act shall take effect on the first of April next succeeding 45 the date on which it shall have become a law; provided that, effective 46 immediately, the commissioner of health shall make regulations and take 47 other actions reasonably necessary to implement this act on such date.
