- (p) Adjustments made pursuant to subparagraph (q) of this paragraph shall be collectible upon the landlord's filing of a report with the city rent agency, subject to the provisions of subparagraph (e) of para-6 graph two of subdivision a of this section and verification by the city rent agency, in collaboration with local authorities responsible for inspecting buildings, that the applicant does not have more than thirty 10 class A housing code violations or a class B or C housing code violation 11 on the property. Outstanding housing code violations that are found 12 shall be cleared, corrected or abated by the landlord and verified by the city rent agency prior to authorization of a rent increase under subparagraph (q) of this paragraph.
- 15 § 2. Paragraph 6 of subdivision c of section 26-511 of the administra-16 tive code of the city of New York, as amended by section 29 of part A of 17 chapter 20 of the laws of 2015, is amended to read as follows:
- 18 (6) provides criteria whereby the commissioner may act upon applica-19 tions by owners for increases in excess of the level of fair rent 2.0 increase established under this law provided, however, that such criteria shall provide (a) as to hardship applications, for a finding that the level of fair rent increase is not sufficient to enable the owner to 3 maintain approximately the same average annual net income (which shall be computed without regard to debt service, financing costs or management fees) for the three year period ending on or within six months of the date of an application pursuant to such criteria as compared with 7 annual net income, which prevailed on the average over the period nineteen hundred sixty-eight through nineteen hundred seventy, or for the 9 first three years of operation if the building was completed since nine-10 teen hundred sixty-eight or for the first three fiscal years after 11 transfer of title to a new owner provided the new owner can establish to 12 satisfaction of the commissioner that he or she acquired title to 13 the building as a result of a bona fide sale of the entire building and 14 the new owner is unable to obtain requisite records for the fiscal 15 years nineteen hundred sixty-eight through nineteen hundred seventy 16 despite diligent efforts to obtain same from predecessors in title and 17 further provided that the new owner can provide financial data covering 18 minimum of six years under his or her continuous and uninterrupted operation of the building to meet the three year to three year compar-19 20 ative test periods herein provided; and (b) as to completed buildingwide major capital improvements, for a finding that such improvements are deemed depreciable under the Internal Revenue Code and that the cost 22 is to be amortized over an eight-year period for a building with thir-23 24 ty-five or fewer housing accommodations, or a nine-year period for a 25 building with more than thirty-five housing accommodations, for any 26 determination issued by the division of housing and community renewal 27 after the effective date of the rent act of 2015, based upon cash purchase price exclusive of interest or service charges. 28 29 of housing and community renewal shall require the submission of a report by landlords applying for a rent increase for major capital 30 31 improvements pursuant to this paragraph and subject to verification by the division of housing and community renewal, in collaboration with 32 33 local authorities responsible for inspecting buildings, certifying that 34 there are not more than thirty class A housing code violations nor a 35 class B or C housing code violation on the property, prior to receiving 36 approval for such rent increase. Notwithstanding anything to the contra-37 ry contained herein, no hardship increase granted pursuant to this para-38 graph shall, when added to the annual gross rents, as determined by the 39 commissioner, exceed the sum of, (i) the annual operating expenses, (ii) 40 allowance for management services as determined by the commissioner, 41 (iii) actual annual mortgage debt service (interest and amortization) on 42 its indebtedness to a lending institution, an insurance company, 43 retirement fund or welfare fund which is operated under the supervision 44 of the banking or insurance laws of the state of New York or the United 45 States, and (iv) eight and one-half percent of that portion of the fair 46 market value of the property which exceeds the unpaid principal amount 47 the mortgage indebtedness referred to in subparagraph (iii) of this 48 paragraph. Fair market value for the purposes of this paragraph shall be six times the annual gross rent. The collection of any increase in the 49 50 stabilized rent for any apartment pursuant to this paragraph shall not 51 exceed six percent in any year from the effective date of the order 52 granting the increase over the rent set forth in the schedule of gross rents, with collectability of any dollar excess above said sum to be spread forward in similar increments and added to the stabilized rent as established or set in future years;

§ 3. Subdivision d of section 6 of section 4 of chapter 576 of the laws of 1974, constituting the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-four, is amended by adding a new paragraph 6 to read as follows:

- (6) adjustments made pursuant to paragraph (3) of this subdivision shall be collectable upon the landlord's filing of a report with the state division of housing and community renewal and subject to verification by the state division of housing and community renewal, in collaboration with local authorities responsible for inspecting buildings, that the applicant does not have more than thirty class A housing code violations or a class B or C housing code violation on the property. Outstanding housing code violations that are found shall be cleared, corrected or abated by the landlord and verified by the state division of housing and community renewal prior to authorization of a rent increase under paragraph (3) of this subdivision.
- § 4. The second undesignated paragraph of paragraph (a) of subdivision 4 of section 4 of chapter 274 of the laws of 1946, constituting the emergency housing rent control law, as amended by section 25 of part B of chapter 97 of the laws of 2011, subparagraph 7 as amended by section 32 of part A of chapter 20 of the laws of 2015, is amended to read as follows:

22 No application for adjustment of maximum rent based upon a sales price 23 valuation shall be filed by the landlord under this subparagraph prior 24 to six months from the date of such sale of the property. In addition, 25 no adjustment ordered by the commission based upon such sales price 26 valuation shall be effective prior to one year from the date of such 27 sale. Where, however, the assessed valuation of the land exceeds four times the assessed valuation of the buildings thereon, the commission 28 29 may determine a valuation of the property equal to five times the equal-30 ized assessed valuation of the buildings, for the purposes of this 31 subparagraph. The commission may make a determination that the valuation 32 the property is an amount different from such equalized assessed 33 valuation where there is a request for a reduction in such assessed valuation currently pending; or where there has been a reduction in the 34 35 assessed valuation for the year next preceding the effective date of the 36 current assessed valuation in effect at the time of the filing of the 37 application. Net annual return shall be the amount by which the earned 38 income exceeds the operating expenses of the property, excluding mort-39 gage interest and amortization, and excluding allowances for obsolescence and reserves, but including an allowance for depreciation of two 40 41 centum of the value of the buildings exclusive of the land, or the 42 amount shown for depreciation of the buildings in the latest required 43 income tax return, whichever is lower; provided, however, that (1) no allowance for depreciation of the buildings shall be included 44 where the buildings have been fully depreciated for federal income tax 45 46 purposes or on the books of the owner; or (2) the landlord who owns no 47 more than four rental units within the state has not been fully compensated by increases in rental income sufficient to offset unavoidable 48 increases in property taxes, fuel, utilities, insurance and repairs and 49 50 maintenance, excluding mortgage interest and amortization, and excluding 51 allowances for depreciation, obsolescence and reserves, which have 52 occurred since the federal date determining the maximum rent or the date 53 the property was acquired by the present owner, whichever is later; or 54 (3) the landlord operates a hotel or rooming house or owns a cooperative 55 apartment and has not been fully compensated by increases in rental income from the controlled housing accommodations sufficient to offset

1 been compensated therefor by adjustment of the maximum rent by lease or order of the commission or pursuant to the federal act; or (10) the 3 presence of unique or peculiar circumstances materially affecting the maximum rent has resulted in a maximum rent which is substantially lower than the rents generally prevailing in the same area for substantially similar housing accommodations. Adjustments made pursuant to subparagraph (7) of this paragraph shall be collectible upon the landlord's 7 filing of a report with the commission and subject to verification by 9 the commission, in collaboration with local authorities responsible for inspecting buildings, that the applicant does not have more than thirty 10 class A housing code violations or a class B or C housing code violation 11 on the property. Outstanding housing code volitions that are found shall 12 be cleared, corrected or abated by the landlord and verified by the 13 14 commission prior to authorization of a rent increase under subparagraph (7) of this paragraph. 15

- § 5. This act shall take effect on the sixtieth day after it shall have become a law; provided that:
- (a) the amendments to section 26-405 of the city rent and rehabilitation law made by section one of this act shall remain in full force and effect only as long as the public emergency requiring the regulation and control of residential rents and evictions continues, as provided in subdivision 3 of section 1 of the local emergency housing rent control act;
- (b) the amendments to section 26-511 of the rent stabilization law of 25 nineteen hundred sixty-nine made by section two of this act shall expire on the same date as such law expires and shall not affect the expiration of such law as provided under section 26-520 of such law, as from time to time amended;
- 29 (c) the amendment to section 6 of the emergency tenant protection act 30 of nineteen seventy-four made by section three of this act shall expire 31 on the same date as such act expires and shall not affect the expiration 32 such act as provided in section 17 of chapter 576 of the laws of 33 1974, as from time to time amended; and
- (d) the amendment to section 4 of the emergency housing rent control 34 35 law made by section four of this act shall expire on the same date as 36 such law expires and shall not affect the expiration of such law as provided in subdivision 2 of section 1 of chapter 274 of the laws of 38 1946.
