Introduced by Sen. KRUEGER -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Housing, Construction and Community Development

AN ACT to amend the administrative code of the city of New York and the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-four, in relation to approval of major capital improvement rent increases

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 26-405 of the administrative code of the city of 1 New York is amended by adding a new subdivision n to read as follows:

n. (1) No major capital improvement rent increase will be approved by the division of housing and community renewal unless the work performed is an enhancement or upgrade to a housing accommodation or service therein; or is an addition to such housing accommodation and otherwise eligible according to the prerequisites for major capital improvement rent increases. Any repair or replacement intended to maintain an existing service shall not be eligible for a major capital improvement rent increase.

1 scope of work, expected date of completion for such work and an affida-2 vit setting forth the following information:

- (a) every owner of record and owner of a substantial interest in the property or entity owning the property or sponsoring the improvement; and
- (b) a statement that none of such persons had, within the five years prior to the improvement, been found to have harassed or unlawfully evicted tenants by judgment or determination of a court or agency under the penal law, any state or local law regulating rents or any state or local law relating to harassment of tenants or unlawful eviction.
- Upon receipt of the scope of work and affidavit provided for herein, the division of housing and community renewal shall provide the tenants in occupancy in such buildings with such information. The division of housing and community renewal shall, in addition, implement procedures including, but not limited to, eliciting tenant comments to determine whether major capital improvement rehabilitation work has been satisfactorily completed. No major capital improvement rent increase shall become effective until any defective or deficient rehabilitation work has been cured.
- § 2. Subdivision c of section 26-511 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding a new paragraph 6-b to read as follows:
- (6-b) provides criteria whereby the commissioner may act upon application by owners for increases in excess of the level of fair rent increase established under this law provided however, that such criteria shall provide that:
- (1) no major capital improvement rent increase will be approved by the division of housing and community renewal unless the work performed is an enhancement or upgrade to a housing accommodation or service therein; or is an addition to such housing accommodation and otherwise eligible according to the prerequisites for major capital improvement rent increases. Any repair or replacement intended to maintain an existing service shall not be eligible for a major capital improvement rent increase.
- be approved if there exist any outstanding hazardous violations at the time of the consideration of such application, as determined pursuant to regulations of the division of housing and community renewal or any agency administering and enforcing a building code in the jurisdiction in which the property is located, unless it is determined by the division of housing and community renewal that such work is essential to the alleviation of the violations and such approval is consistent with the provisions of this section. Except in the case of emergency or good cause, the owner of the property shall file, not less than thirty days before the commencement of the improvement, with the division of housing and community renewal a statement containing information outlining the scope of work, expected date of completion for such work and an affidavit setting forth the following information:
- 49 (a) every owner of record and owner of a substantial interest in the
