Introduced by Sen. MURPHY -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Commerce, Economic Development and Small Business

AN ACT to amend the state administrative procedure act, in relation to improving evaluations of the potential impact of rules on jobs and employment opportunities

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 201-a of the state administrative procedure act, as 2 added by chapter 189 of the laws of 1996, paragraph (g) of subdivision 2 3 as amended by chapter 304 of the laws of 2016, is amended to read as 4 follows:

5 § 201-a. Job impact. 1. In developing a rule, an agency shall strive 6 to accomplish the objectives of applicable statutes in a manner which 7 minimizes any unnecessary adverse impacts on existing jobs and promotes 8 the development of new employment opportunities, including opportunities 9 for self-employment, for the residents of the state.

10 2. Before proposing a rule for adoption or adopting a rule on an emer-11 gency basis, an agency shall evaluate the potential impact of the rule 12 on jobs and employment opportunities.

13 (a) When it is apparent from the nature and purpose of the rule that 14 it will not have a substantial adverse impact on jobs and employment opportunities, the agency shall include in the notice of proposed rule 15 making or the notice of emergency adoption a statement that the agency 16 has determined that the rule will not have a substantial adverse impact 17 18 on jobs and employment opportunities; provided, however, that, where 19 appropriate, such statement shall indicate that the agency has deter-20 mined the rule will have a positive impact on jobs and employment opportunities, or will have no impact on jobs and employment opportunities. 21 22 Except where it is evident from the subject matter of the rule that the 23 rule could only have a positive impact or no impact on jobs and employment opportunities, the agency shall include in the statement prepared 1 2 pursuant to this paragraph a summary of the information and methodology 3 underlying its determination. 4 (b) When it is apparent from the nature and purpose of the rule that 5 it may have a substantial adverse impact on jobs or employment opportuб nities, the agency shall issue a job impact statement which contains 7 information on: 8 (i) the nature of the impact the rule will have on jobs and employment 9 opportunities; (ii) the categories of jobs or employment opportunities affected by 10 11 the rule; 12 (iii) the approximate number of jobs or employment opportunities 13 affected in each category; 14 (iv) any region of the state where the rule would have a dispropor-15 tionate adverse impact on jobs or employment opportunities; and 16 (v) any measures which the agency [has taken] or other state agencies 17 have taken or could take to minimize any unnecessary adverse impacts on 18 existing jobs and to promote the development of new employment opportu-19 nities. 20 (c) When the information available to an agency is insufficient to 21 enable it to determine whether a rule will have a substantial adverse impact on jobs or employment opportunities, or to prepare a job impact 22 statement pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subdivision, the agency 23 shall issue a statement indicating the information which it needs to 24 25 complete a job impact statement and requesting the assistance of other 26 state agencies and the public in obtaining such information. 27 (d) An agency shall issue a revised job impact statement when: 28 (i) [the] it is necessary to correct or supplement information 29 presented in the previous statement [46] that was inadequate or incom-30 plete; 31 (ii) the proposed rule contains any substantial revisions which neces-32 sitate that such statement be modified; or 33 (iii) the agency has issued a statement pursuant to paragraph (c) of 34 this subdivision, and has received information from other state agencies 35 or the public which enable it to provide a more complete evaluation of 36 the potential impact of the rule on jobs and employment opportunities. 37 (e) If, after requesting the assistance of other state agencies and 38 the public pursuant to paragraph (c) of this subdivision, an agency is still unable to determine whether the rule will have a substantial 39 adverse impact on jobs and employment opportunities, it may adopt the 40 41 rule. When adopting a rule pursuant to this paragraph, the agency shall 42 issue a revised job impact statement which includes information on the 43 measures the agency took to evaluate the potential impact of the rule on 44 jobs and employment opportunities. No rule may be adopted pursuant to 45 this paragraph if it is the subject of a statement of concurrence pursu-46 ant to subdivision three of this section until the requirements of 47 subdivision three of this section have been met. 48 (f) When adopting a rule on an emergency basis, an agency may defer 49 the issuance of any statement pursuant to this section, provided that 50 the statement is published in the state register within thirty days of 51 the effective date of the emergency rule. 52 When any statement issued pursuant to this section exceeds two (q) 53 thousand words, the agency shall prepare a summary of such statement in 54 less than two thousand words for publication in the state register in 55 which it shall identify the website of the agency, or of another state

55 which it shall identify the website of the agency, or of anothe 56 entity, on which the full text of the statement has been posted. 1 (h) An agency may consider a series of closely related and simultane-2 ously proposed rules as one rule for the purpose of submitting a consol-3 idated job impact statement.

4 (i) Where a rule would have a measurable impact on opportunities for 5 self-employment, the agency shall include a discussion of such impact in 6 any statement prepared pursuant to this section.

7 (j) An agency shall make available the methodology and data or data 8 sources used to prepare any statement issued pursuant to paragraph (b) 9 of subdivision two of this section.

10 3. (a) The commissioner of labor and the commissioner of economic 11 development may review any statement issued pursuant to this section, 12 and may consult informally with any agency preparing such a statement 13 and advise it on the potential impact of a rule on jobs and employment 14 opportunities.

15 (b) When the commissioner of labor and the commissioner of economic 16 development concur in a determination that additional evaluation of the 17 potential impact of a proposed rule on jobs and employment opportunities is needed to assist in the minimization of any unnecessary adverse 18 impacts of the rule on jobs or employment opportunities, they shall 19 20 issue a statement of concurrence and transmit a copy of such statement 21 to the agency and to the secretary of state for publication in the state register. The statement of concurrence shall: 22

23 (i) identify each proposed rule which is the subject of the statement 24 of concurrence;

(ii) set forth the basis for the determination that additional evaluation of the potential impact of the rule is needed to assist in the minimization of any unnecessary adverse impacts on jobs or employment opportunities, and, where relevant, identify each aspect of the job impact statement which is incomplete or deficient;

(iii) include appropriate recommendations for additional evaluation of the impact of the rule or of any measures which the agency should consider to minimize any adverse impacts of the rule on jobs or employment opportunities; and

(iv) specify a time period of not more than ninety days for the agencyto perform such additional evaluation or consider such recommendations.

36 (c) An agency shall strive to perform such additional evaluation or 37 consider such measures as are recommended in a statement of concurrence 38 within the time period set forth therein. No agency shall adopt the rule 39 which is the subject of the statement of concurrence until:

(i) the agency has performed the additional evaluation or considered the measures recommended in the statement of concurrence, and has issued a revised job impact statement, which is acceptable to the commissioners of economic development and labor, setting forth any changes which it will make to the rule to minimize any adverse impacts on jobs or employment opportunities; or

46 (ii) after the expiration of the time period set forth in the state-47 ment of concurrence.

(d) The statement of concurrence shall be considered public comment for the purpose of this article and shall be summarized and analyzed in any assessment of public comment.

4. Nothing in this section shall be construed as preventing an agency from adopting a rule on an emergency basis at any time.

53 5. Copies of any statement prepared pursuant to this section, includ-54 ing any statement of concurrence, shall be distributed as provided in 55 subdivision six-a of section two hundred two of this article.

56 6. For the purposes of this section:

1 2 3 4 5 6 7	 (a) "rule" shall mean any rule proposed or any rule adopted on an emergency basis pursuant to this article, except for: (i) any rule defined in subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (a) of subdivision two of section one hundred two of this [article] chapter; (ii) any rule defined in [subdivisions ten,] subdivision eleven [or twelve] of section one hundred two of this [article] chapter; or (iii) any rule proposed or adopted by the state comptroller or the
8	attorney general.
9	(b) "impact on jobs or employment opportunities" shall mean a change
10	in the number of jobs and employment opportunities, including opportu-
11 12	nities for self-employment, primarily attributable to the adoption of a rule, which would otherwise be available to the residents of the state
13	in the two-year period commencing on the date the rule takes effect.
14^{13}	"Impact on jobs or employment opportunities" shall also mean a signif-
15	icant change in employment status, including whether adoption of a rule
16	would have a significant impact on average wage levels, hours and/or
17	duration of employment.
18	(c) "substantial adverse impact on jobs or employment opportunities"
19	shall mean a decrease of more than one hundred full-time annual jobs and
20	employment opportunities, including opportunities for self-employment,
21	in the state, or the equivalent in part-time or seasonal employment,
22	which would otherwise be available to the residents of the state in the
23	two-year period commencing on the date the rule takes effect. "Substan-
24	tial adverse impact on jobs or employment opportunities" shall also mean
25	any changes in the status of such jobs and employment opportunities,
26	including but not limited to any significant net reductions in average
27	wage levels, hours and/or duration of employment, that would represent a
28	substantial adverse impact on incomes or economic security.
