AN ACT to amend the tax law, in relation to providing a tax credit for allowable college expenses

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 606 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subsection (ccc) to read as follows:

(ccc) Stay in New York credit. (1) General. (A) A resident taxpayer shall be allowed a credit against the tax imposed by this article for allowable college expenses. The amount of the credit shall be equal to twenty-five percent of allowable college expenses, capped at three thousand dollars. The credit shall be allowed only in the first taxable year subsequent to the taxpayer's completion of a course of study leading to the granting of a baccalaureate degree and in each of the next three taxable years.

(B) In order to qualify for the credit, the eligible taxpayer shall:

(i) have completed the course of study leading to the granting of a baccalaureate degree from an institution of higher education within four years from the commencement of such course of study. Provided, however, if the eligible taxpayer was employed in excess of three hundred hours per semester, the eligible taxpayer shall have completed the course of study leading to the granting of a baccalaureate degree within five years from the commencement of such course of study;

(ii) be employed full-time within the state; and

(iii) have completed twenty hours of community service per semester of enrollment in an institution of higher education. Provided, however, for

1 those eligible taxpayers who have been granted degrees within three 2 years of the effective date of this subsection, such taxpayers shall 3 complete the community service within the first taxable year in which 4 the credit is claimed.

5 (C) For eligible taxpayers who enroll in a course of study leading to 6 the granting of a post baccalaureate or other graduate degree immediate-7 ly following the receipt of a baccalaureate degree, the credit shall be 8 allowed in the first taxable year subsequent to the taxpayer's 9 completion of such degree or when such taxpayer ceases to be enrolled in 10 such course of study and in each of the next three taxable years
11 provided all other qualifications of this subsection are met.

12 (2) Allowable and qualified college expenses. For the purposes of this 13 credit:

14 (A) The term "allowable college expenses" shall mean the total amount 15 of qualified college expenses incurred by the taxpayer during the 16 taxpayer's enrollment in a course of study leading to the granting of a 17 baccalaureate degree from an institution of higher education.

18 (B) The term "qualified college expenses" shall mean the tuition
19 required for the enrollment or attendance of the taxpayer at an institu-
20 tion of higher education. Provided, however, tuition payments made 21 pursuant to the receipt of any scholarships or financial aid shall be 22 excluded from the definition of "qualified college expenses".

23 (3) Institution of higher education. For the purposes of this credit, 24 the term "institution of higher education" shall mean any institution of 25 higher education located in the state, recognized and approved by the 26 regents, or any successor organization, of the university of the state
27 of New York or accredited by a nationally recognized accrediting agency
28 or association accepted as such by the regents, or any successor organ-
29 ization, of the university of the state of New York, which provides a 30 course of study leading to the granting of a post-secondary degree, 31 certificate or diploma.

32 (4) Refundability. The credit under this subsection shall be allowed 33 against the taxes imposed by this article for the taxable year reduced
34 by the credits permitted by this article. If the credit exceeds the tax 35 as so reduced, the taxpayer may receive, and the comptroller, subject to 36 a certificate of the commissioner, shall pay as an overpayment, without 37 interest, the amount of such excess.

38 § 2. Subparagraph (A) of paragraph 2 of subsection (t) of section 606
39 of the tax law, as amended by section 1 of part N of chapter 85 of the 40 laws of 2002, is amended to read as follows:

41 (A) The term "allowable college tuition expenses" shall mean the 42 amount of qualified college tuition expenses of eligible students paid
43 by the taxpayer during the taxable year[~~r~~]. The amount of qualified 44 college tuition expenses shall be limited [~~to~~] as follows: for taxable 45 years beginning after two thousand and before two thousand twenty ten 46 thousand dollars for each such student; for taxable years beginning in 47 two thousand twenty, twelve thousand dollars for each student; for taxa-
48 ble years beginning in two thousand twenty-one, fourteen thousand
49 dollars for each student; for taxable years beginning in two thousand
50 twenty-two, sixteen thousand dollars for each student; for taxable years 51 beginning in two thousand twenty-three, eighteen thousand dollars for 52 each student; and for taxable years beginning after two thousand twen-
53 ty-three, twenty thousand dollars per student;

54 § 3. Paragraph 4 of subsection (t) of section 606 of the tax law, as 55 added by section 1 of part DD of chapter 63 of the laws of 2000, is 56 amended to read as follows:

(4) Amount of credit. [~~If allowable college tuition expenses are less than five thousand dollars, the amount of the credit provided under this subsection shall be equal to the applicable percentage of the lesser of allowable college tuition expenses or two hundred dollars. If allowable college tuition expenses are five thousand dollars or more, the amount of the credit provided under this subsection shall be equal to the applicable percentage of the allowable college tuition expenses multiplied by four percent.~~]

The amount of the credit shall be determined in accordance with the following schedules:

(A) For taxable years beginning after two thousand and before two thousand twenty:

If allowable college tuition expenses are:	The tax credit is equal to:
Less than five thousand dollars	the applicable percentage of the lesser of allowable college tuition expenses or two hundred dollars

6 years beginning in two thousand one, fifty percent for taxable years
7 beginning in two thousand two, seventy-five percent for taxable years
8 beginning in two thousand three and one hundred percent for taxable 9 years beginning after two thousand three.

10 § 4. Subsection (t) of section 606 of the tax law is amended by adding 11 a new paragraph 4-a to read as follows:

12 (4-a) Inflation adjustment. (A) For taxable years beginning in or 13 after two thousand twenty-four, the dollar amounts in subparagraph (A) 14 of paragraph two and paragraph four of this subsection shall be multi-15 plied by one plus the inflation adjustment.

16 (B) The inflation adjustment for any taxable year shall be the 17 percentage, if any, by which the higher education price index for the 18 academic fiscal year ending in the immediately preceding taxable year
19 exceeds the higher education price index for the academic fiscal year
20 ending June, two thousand twenty-three. For the purposes of this para-
21 graph, the higher education price index means the higher education price
22 index published by the Commonfund Institute.

23 (C) If the product of the amounts in subparagraphs (A) and (B) of this 24 paragraph is not a multiple of five dollars, such increase shall be 25 rounded to the next multiple of five dollars.

26 § 5. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to taxable 27 years beginning on or after January 1, 2020; provided, however, that 28 section one of this act shall apply to taxable years beginning on or 29 after January 1, 2021.
