4. "Funded amount" shall mean the amount of money provided to the consumer in consumer litigation financing.

- 5. "Resolution date" shall mean the date the funded amount and agreed upon charges are delivered to the consumer litigation financing company.
- § 899-ddd. Contract requirements. 1. Consumer litigation funding contracts shall contain a right of rescission, allowing the consumer to cancel the consumer litigation funding contract without a penalty if the consumer returns the full amount of disbursed funds to the company within ten business days.
- 10 2. Consumer litigation funding contracts shall contain a written 11 acknowledgement by the attorney retained by the consumer that attests:
 - (a) the attorney is being paid on a contingency basis pursuant to a written fee agreement; and
 - (b) the attorney is not receiving a referral fee from the litigation funding company in connection with the consumer's funding.
 - 3. Consumer litigation funding contracts shall clearly outline a scheduled fee structure that outlines repayment terms including:
 - (a) the funded amount plus charges written out as itemized amounts;
 - (b) the charges outlined as a percentage amount exceeding the funded amount; and
 - (c) itemized one-time fees including paperwork processing and administrative fees.
 - 4. Consumer litigation funding contracts shall contain a no penalty provision for the pre-payment of the funded amount prior to the settlement of his or her case. Such provision shall release the consumer from any obligation to share his or her settlement or verdict.
 - § 899-eee. Prohibitions. 1. Consumer litigation funding companies shall be prohibited from paying, accepting or offering referral fees or any type of consideration to and from any medical providers, licensed therapists or attorneys for referring a consumer to the company for the purpose of entering into a consumer litigation funding contract.
 - 2. The company shall be prohibited from making any inquiries with the consumer's representative attorney that would violate the terms of the attorney-client privilege at any point in time.
 - 3. No attorney or law firm retained by a consumer who has entered into a consumer litigation funding contract with a consumer litigation funding company may have a financial interest in said company.
 - 4. Consumer litigation funding companies shall be prohibited from attempting to obtain, or obtaining a waiver of any remedy, including but not limited to, compensatory, statutory or punitive damages, that the consumer might otherwise have.
 - 5. Consumer litigation funding companies shall be prohibited from attempting to effect arbitration or otherwise effect waiver of a consumer's right to trial by jury for complaints arising from the consumer litigation funding contract.
- 46 6. Consumer litigation funding companies shall be prohibited from 47 assigning a consumer litigation funding contract in whole or in part. 48
 - 7. Maximum amount of charges:
- 49 (a) the maximum amount of charges which may be assessed pursuant to a 50 consumer litigation funding contract shall not be in excess of the rate 51 prescribed in section fourteen-a of the banking law, when expressed as a proportion of the funded amount; and 52
- 53 (b) any consumer litigation funding contract which exceeds such rate 54 shall be considered usurious as defined by section 5-501 of the general 55 obligations law.

§ 899-fff. Registration. 1. Each consumer litigation funding company that wishes to engage in business in the state of New York shall first register with the New York department of financial services.

- 2. Each applicant's registration must be filed in a manner prescribed by the New York department of financial services with an initial accompanied fee of five hundred dollars. Registrations must be renewed every two years on or before the thirtieth day of September.
- 3. The New York department of financial services shall issue certif-9 icates of registration after both understanding and attesting to the 10 character and fitness of the applicant company with sufficient reason to 11 believe the company will operate honestly and fairly.
- 12 § 899-ggg. Penalty for violation. Any company found in violation of 13 any provisions of this article in a specific funding case, waives its 14 right to recover both the funded amount and any additional fees in that 15 particular case.
- 16 § 2. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after 17 it shall have become a law.
