Introduced by Sen. FUNKE -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Cultural Affairs, Tourism, Parks and Recreation

AN ACT to amend the economic development law, in relation to establishing the New York state amateur sports development advisory council

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The economic development law is amended by adding a new 2 article 5-B-1 to read as follows:

3 ARTICLE 5-B-1

4 NEW YORK STATE AMATEUR SPORTS DEVELOPMENT ADVISORY COUNCIL

5 Section 172-a. New York state amateur sports development advisory coun-6 cil established.

7 172-b. Purpose of the council.

8 172-c. Powers of the council.

9 § 172-a. New York state amateur sports development advisory council
10 established. 1. There is hereby established in the department the New 11 York state amateur sports development advisory council which shall 12 comprise eighteen members appointed by the governor, three on the recom-
13 mendation of the temporary president of the senate; one on the recommen-
14 dation of the minority leader of the senate; three on the recommendation 15 of the speaker of the assembly; and one on the recommendation of the 16 minority leader of the assembly. The members of the council shall serve 17 for terms of two years, provided, however, that of the members first 18 appointed, nine shall serve for terms of two years and nine shall serve 19 for terms of three years. The governor shall designate the chairman from 20 among the members of the council. The vice chairman shall be elected 21 from among the members of the council by the members of such council, 22 and shall represent the council in the absence of the chairman at all 23 official council functions. The chair of the senate committee on 24 cultural affairs, tourism, parks and recreation and the chair of the

1 assembly committee on tourism, arts and sports development or their 2 designated representatives, shall be non-voting, ex officio members of 3 the council and shall receive no additional compensation for their 4 services on the advisory council.

5 2. In appointing the members of the council, the governor shall ensure 6 that such members include representatives of organizations that sponsor 7 and promote amateur sports activities in the state including, but not 8 limited to, businesses, convention bureaus, cultural institutions, parks
9 and attractions, schools, clubs, colleges and universities, restaurants,
10 water-based recreation facilities, campgrounds, ski facilities, winer-
11 ies, halls of fame, travel agents and transportation companies.

12 3. The members of the council shall receive no compensation for their 13 services but shall be allowed their actual and necessary expenses
14 incurred in the performance of their duties as council members.

15 4. The council shall meet at least five times a year including no less 16 than three times between January first and May thirty-first, at the 17 call of the commissioner or the chairman of the council.

18 5. Unless a member has been excused from attendance at such meetings
19 by the chairman or vice-chairman upon good cause being shown, any member 20 who fails to attend three consecutive meetings shall be deemed to have 21 resigned. Any vacancy on the council shall be filled for the remaining
22 term of the individual replaced. The appointment to fill such vacancy 23 shall be made in the same manner as the original appointment was made.

24 6. The department shall provide necessary technical and staff assist-
25 ance to the council. All reasonable requests by the council for infor-26 mation, cooperation, or assistance to carry out the purposes of this 27 article shall be provided by any other department, division, board, 28 bureau, commission, authority or agency of the state.

29 § 172-b. Purpose of the council. The purposes of the council shall be 30 to advise the commissioner concerning amateur sports promotions, to link
31 tourism resources to amateur sports promotion and to serve as liaison 32 between the state's amateur sports clubs and organizations and the 33 commissioner with respect to coordinating the design and implementation 34 of the state's amateur sporting event promotion policies and programs.

35 § 172-c. Powers of the council. The council shall have the following 36 powers:

37 1. To identify and review amateur sports activities, coordinating 38 scheduling and use of venues, and current state policies and programs
39 which directly or indirectly affect the promotion of amateur sporting 40 events in the state and, as appropriate, recommend the adoption of new,
41 or the modification of existing, policies and programs;

42 2. To advise the department in its promotion and development of 43 amateur sporting tournaments and events, facilities and related services 44 in the state; to provide guidance and assistance to local amateur 45 sports clubs and organizations; and to provide central inventory of 46 venues, a statewide schedule of amateur sporting events and a central 47 resource for such sporting event information;

48 3. To advise the department in the development and implementation of 49 the state's amateur sports marketing and business development program,
50 including long-range strategies for attracting amateur sports enthusi-
51 asts to the state;

52 4. To advise the department, the governor and the legislature concern-
53 ing recommended legislation necessary to foster and promote the expan-
54 sion and development of amateur sporting events within the state;

55 5. To advise the department, the governor and the legislature concern-
56 ing existing laws, rules, regulations and practices of state agencies

1 which are counter-productive or inimical to the expansion and develop-2 ment of amateur sporting events within the state; and

3 6. To assist the department in obtaining information necessary for the 4 development and improvement of state policies and programs affecting the 5 promotion of amateur sporting events and related industries in the 6 state.

7 § 2. Reporting requirements. The chair of the New York state advisory 8 council shall report, on or before March first next succeeding such 9 council's initial convening and annually thereafter, to the governor and 10 the legislature and make appropriate recommendations consistent with the 11 purposes of this act.

12 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
