AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to school session days

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 8 of section 3604 of the education law, as 2 amended by chapter 260 of the laws of 2012, is amended to read as 3 follows:

3 8. No school shall be in session on a Saturday or a legal holiday, 4 5 except general election day, Washington's birthday and Lincoln's birthday, and except that driver education classes may be conducted on a 7 Saturday. No school located in a city with a population of one million or more shall be in session on the day of a primary election or general election. A deficiency not exceeding four days during any school year 10 caused by teachers' attendance upon conferences held by superintendents 11 of schools of city school districts or other school districts employing 12 superintendents of schools shall be excused by the commissioner, 13 notwithstanding any provision of law, rule or regulation to the contrary, a school district may elect to schedule such conference days in the 15 last two weeks of August, subject to collective bargaining requirements 16 pursuant to article fourteen of the civil service law, and such days 17 shall be counted towards the required one hundred eighty days of session, provided however, that such scheduling shall not alter the 18 obligation of the school district to provide transportation to students 19 in non-public elementary and secondary schools or charter schools. The 20 21 commissioner shall excuse a deficiency not exceeding four days during such school year caused by teachers' attendance upon conferences held by 23 such superintendents, provided that at least two such conference days 24 during such school year shall be dedicated to staff attendance upon 25 conferences providing staff development relating to implementation of 26 the new high learning standards and assessments, as adopted by the board of regents. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, rule or regulation to the contrary, school districts may elect to use one or more of such allowable conference days in units of not less than one hour each to provide staff development activities relating to implementation of the new high learning standards and assessments. A district making such election may provide such staff development during the regularly scheduled daily session and apply such units to satisfy a deficiency in the length of one or more daily sessions of instruction for pupils as specified in regulations of the commissioner. The commissioner shall assure that such conference days include appropriate school violence prevention and intervention training, and may require that up to one such conference day be dedicated for such purpose.
