50 the education law; (5) land surveying services rendered pursuant to 51 article one hundred forty-five of the education law; or (6) geological 52 services rendered pursuant to article one hundred forty-five of the 53 education law arising from or in connection with an actual or impending 54 declared emergency, or national, state or local disaster, as defined in 55 paragraph a of subdivision two of section twenty of this article.

2. Subject to paragraphs (a) through (g) of this subdivision, any person, corporation or other entity, and the employees and agents of such person, corporation or other entity, which provides emergency assistance either on a voluntary basis at the request of a public official, law enforcement official, public safety official or code enforcement official, municipal corporation, state department, state authority, local authority, school district or special district; or pursuant to a contract with a public official, law enforcement official, public safety official or code enforcement official, municipal corporation, state department, state authority, local authority, school district or special district; shall not be liable for any civil damages for injuries resulting from any act of commission or omission on his or her part in the course of his or her rendering such assistance unless it is established that such injuries were caused by gross negligence, or reckless, wanton or intentional misconduct, on the part of such person arising from, directly or indirectly, the person, corporation or entity, or the employees or agents of such person, corporation or entity, relating to the rendering or furnishing of the voluntary or contractual emergency assistance in connection with the disaster or emergency, provided that the emergency assistance consists of acts, advice, service, work, labor, materials, supplies, equipment or other activities that are consistent with the nature of and rendered pursuant to the request for, consent to, approval of, or contract for such emergency assistance.

(a) The rights and benefits provided in this subdivision shall apply with respect to all emergency assistance furnished within the period ending on the later of (1) sixty days after the emergency is declared terminated by the authorized public official, or (2) thirty days after the applicable official, municipal corporation, department or authority advises the private person, corporation or other entity that is providing the emergency assistance in writing that the emergency assistance is completed.

(b) The rights and benefits provided in this section shall apply in all cases except upon a showing that assistance or advice rendered, or a service furnished for or in connection with an impending or actual declared national, state or local disaster or emergency was performed pursuant to a separate written agreement for work to be performed or services to be rendered after the conclusion of the emergency assistance where the primary purpose of such agreement is the design or construction of a permanent repair, restoration, correction or other remedy of the conditions that caused or were damaged by the declared emergency, or national, state or local disaster, as defined in paragraph a of subdivision two of section twenty of this article.

(c) Where a person, corporation or other entity, or the employees or agents of any person, corporation or other entity renders advice or services at the request of a state or local employee or official and where such advice or services fall within the ambit of the rights and benefits provided in this section, the liability of the state or locality, if any, which requested the services shall not be affected by the provisions of this section.

(d) The rights and benefits provided in this section shall not apply to persons, corporations or other entities (1) whose primary business or occupation, at the time of the occurrence of the disaster or circumstances that gave rise to the declared emergency for which emergency assistance was provided, is one of providing emergency first responder services in response to declared emergencies, and national, state or local disasters, as defined in paragraph a of subdivision two of section

1 twenty of this article; or (2) is regularly engaged in the business of
2 manufacturing equipment that is intended for general use in emergency
3 response operations.

4 (e) The rights and benefits provided in this section shall not apply
5 to persons, corporations or other entities whose negligence or willful
6 misconduct caused, in whole or in material part, the disaster or 7 declared emergency.

8 (f) Nothing in this section shall affect the rights and benefits of 9 individuals expressly authorized to participate in volunteer emergency
10 response activities under the direction of or in connection with a
11 community emergency response team, county emergency management agency,
12 state emergency management agency, state-sponsored volunteer program or 13 federal emergency management agency.

14 (g) The rights and benefits provided in this section shall not affect 15 the rights of individuals to seek workers' compensation insurance
16 compensation and other benefits thereunder.

17 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
