2017-2018 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

(Prefiled)

January 4, 2017

Introduced by Sen. PERALTA -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Consumer Protection

AN ACT to amend the general business law and the penal law, in relation to preventing the sale of firearms, rifles, and shotguns to criminals

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Legislative findings and declaration. The legislature hereby finds and declares as follows:

3 1. Firearms, rifles and shotguns are used to kill over 30,000 individuals in the United States every year, including 1,000 individuals in New York state alone. Additionally, there are 100,000 non-fatal injuries across the country. The federal government has largely ignored this public health crisis and has left it up to state and local governments to protect its citizens. Firearm violence also costs billions of dollars and causes incalculable emotional damage, devastating families and communities throughout the country. Therefore, the state of New York has a strong interest in reducing violence and crimes that involve the use of firearms and the illegal trafficking of firearms. Illegal guns obtained throughout the state end up in the hands of criminals, youth and violent individuals who use them to threaten, maim and kill.

15 2. There is a thriving underground market for illegal firearms, largely driven by demand from drug gangs and other criminals. A highly efficient and continuous business practice exists in which firearms are moved from legal manufacture and sale to prohibited purchasers, making them illegal firearms. In 2013, according to a review by the federal Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives (ATF) of trace data compiled for several regions in the state, including Albany, Buffalo, Rochester, Syracuse, Long Island and New York City that calendar year, 8,539 firearms were recovered and traced, 2,164 of which were long guns. Outside New York City, long guns are sold without a permit. 64.4% of the

1 firearms recovered from crimes in New York in 2013 were found in New 2 York City. In 2011, ATF trace data showed that 90% of the traceable
3 guns used in crimes in the five boroughs were from out of state. State-
4 wide, in 2011, 68% of traced crime guns recovered in New York came from 5 out of state. A significant portion of guns involved in crimes upstate
6 originate within the state. For example, according to 2009 ATF crime gun
7 trace data, 69% of crime guns in the Buffalo area and 50% of crime guns
8 in the Syracuse area originated within New York state.

9 3. Youth are particularly at risk of being killed with guns. Accord-
10 ing to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, in 2010 alone, 11 116 children and teens (under the age of 19) died from gun violence in 12 New York state.

13 4. A substantial portion of illegal firearms are diverted to the ille-
14 gal market through licensed gun dealers. Rogue gun dealers play a key 15 role in this market. These rogue dealers funnel guns to the illegal 16 market through a variety of channels. One of the most common means is to 17 allow "straw purchases". A straw purchase occurs when a person purchases
18 a gun on behalf of a prohibited person. The ATF conducted an investi-
19 gation of gun trafficking from July 1996 to December 1998 and found that 20 almost 26,000 trafficked firearms were associated with investigations in 21 which there was a straw purchaser. Almost 50% of all trafficking inves-
22 tigation involved straw purchasers, with an average of 37 firearms
23 trafficked per investigation. Another issue, according to a 2008 report
24 by Mayors Against Illegal Guns, Inside Straw Purchasing: How Criminals
25 Get Guns Illegally, is that many traffickers return to the same store 26 again and again once they have identified it as one in which they can 27 make straw purchases easily. According to the ATF, 1% of gun dealers 28 are the source of almost 60% of crime guns.

29 5. Although most gun dealers operate their businesses legally and 30 responsibly, some gun dealers who are corrupt or maintain shoddy record-31 keeping practices flood the streets with illegal weapons as a result of 32 their unrestricted access to new gun inventory and the unwillingness of 33 gun manufacturers to terminate their supply to these rogue dealers.
34 Current federal and state regulation has not curbed the business prac-35 tice of illegal gun dealers. According to a 2004 study by Americans for 36 Gun Safety, of the 120 worst gun dealers in the country, namely those 37 dealers with an average of 500 crime guns traced to them, 96 were still 38 in operation.

39 6. Moreover, this problem is not limited to unlicensed sellers, and 40 clearly includes federal firearms licensees (FFLs). Indeed, although 41 FFLs were involved in under 10% of the trafficking investigations under-42 taken by ATF, they were associated with the largest number of diverted 43 firearms--over 40,000 guns, which is nearly half of the total number of 44 trafficked firearms documented during the two-year period of the ATF's
45 investigation. Additionally, a 2010 report by Mayors Against Illegal 46 Guns indicated that several states which allow state authorities to 47 supplement the federal ATF inspection with routine inspections provide 48 law enforcement with more opportunities to uncover dealers in violation
49 of the law. These inspections also help identify dealers who exercise
50 lax oversight over their inventory and may lead to improved compliance
51 with federal, state, and local laws.

52 7. Current state law governing firearm dealers is inadequate to 53 prevent the diversion of firearms to the illegal marketplace. Addi-54 tional protections that are needed include, but are not limited to,
55 better gun dealer internal compliance procedures, programs to eliminate 56 straw purchases, improved security measures, reducing youth access, and

1 mandatory training for gun dealer employees. The additional protections 2 set forth in this act will greatly enhance the state's efforts to reduce 3 criminal activity in the state.

4 § 2. The general business law is amended by adding a new article 39-BB
5 to read as follows:

7 waiver from transmitting such records in electronic form if the super-8 intendent determines that such dealer is incapable of such transmission 9 due to technological limitations that are not reasonably within the 10 control of the dealer, or other exceptional circumstances demonstrated 11 by the dealer, pursuant to a process established in regulation, and at 12 the discretion of the superintendent. Records assembled or collected for 13 purposes of inclusion in the database created pursuant to section 400.02

28 sentence, paragraph, section or part thereof directly involved in the 29 controversy in which such judgment shall have been rendered.

31 have become a law; provided that the superintendent of state police is 32 authorized and directed to immediately adopt, amend, and promulgate such 33 rules and regulations as may be necessary and desirable to effectuate 34 the purposes of section two of this act.
