required to present to the clerk documentary proof of age in the form of an original or certified copy of a birth record, a certification of birth issued by the state department of health, a local registrar of 3 4 vital statistics or other public officer charged with similar duties by the laws of any other state, territory or country, a baptismal record, a passport, an automobile driver's license, any government or school issued identification card that contains a photograph of the applicant, 7 8 a life insurance policy, an employment certificate, a school record, an 9 immigration record, a naturalization record, a court record or any other 10 document or record issued by a governmental entity, showing the date of 11 birth of such parties. The said clerk shall also embody in the statement if either or both of the applicants have been previously married, a 12 statement as to whether the former [husband or husbands or the former 13 14 wife or wives] spouse or spouses of the respective applicants are living 15 or dead and as to whether either or both of said applicants are divorced 16 persons, if so, when and where and against whom the divorce or divorces 17 were granted and shall also embody therein a statement that no legal impediment exists as to the right of each of the applicants to enter 18 into the marriage state. The town or city clerk is hereby given full 19 20 power and authority to administer oaths and may require the applicants to produce witnesses to identify them or either of them and may examine under oath or otherwise other witnesses as to any material inquiry 22 pertaining to the issuing of the license, and if the applicant is a 23 24 divorced person the clerk may also require the production of a certified 25 copy of the decree of the divorce, or proof of an existing marriage of 26 parties who apply for a license to be used for a second or subsequent ceremony; provided, however, that in cities or towns the verified state-27 28 ments and affidavits may be made before any regular clerk or designee of 29 the clerk's office.

- 2. If it appears from the affidavits and statements so taken, and from the documentary proof of age presented, that the persons for whose marriage the license in question is demanded are legally competent to marry, the said clerk shall issue such license [except in the following cases. If it shall appear upon an application that the applicant is under eighteen years of age, before the town or city clerk shall issue a license, he shall require documentary proof of age in the form of an original or certified copy of a birth record, a certification of birth issued by the state department of health, a local registrar of vital statistics or other public officer charged with similar duties by the laws of any other state, territory or country, a baptismal record, passport, automobile driver's license, life insurance policy, employment certificate, school record, immigration record, naturalization record or court record, showing the date of birth of such minor. If the town or gity clerk shall be in doubt as to whether an applicant claiming to be over eighteen years of age is actually over eighteen years of age, he shall, before issuing such license, require documentary proof as above
- 3. If it shall appear upon an application of the applicants as provided in this section or upon information required by the clerk that either party is at least [sixteen] seventeen years of age but under eighteen years of age, then the town or city clerk before he shall issue a license shall require:
- (a) the written consent to the marriage from both parents of the minor 54 or minors or such as shall then be living, or if the parents of both are dead, then the written consent of the guardian or guardians of such minor or minors. If one of the parents has been missing and has not been seen or heard from for a period of one year preceding the time of the application for the license, although diligent inquiry has been made to learn the whereabouts of such parent, the town or city clerk may issue a 3 license to such minor upon the sworn statement and consent of the other parent. If the marriage of the parents of such minor has been dissolved by decree of divorce or annulment, the consent of the parent to whom the 7 court which granted the decree has awarded the custody of such minor shall be sufficient. If there is no parent or guardian of the minor or 9 minors living to their knowledge then the town or city clerk shall 10 require the written consent to the marriage of the person under whose 11 care or government the minor or minors may be before a license shall be 12 issued. If a parent of such minor has been adjudicated an incompetent, the town or city clerk may issue a license to such minor upon the 13 14 production of a certified copy of such judgment so determining and upon 15 the written consent of the other parent. If there is no other parent 16 whose consent is required by this section, then and in such event, the 17 town or city clerk shall require the written consent of the guardian of 18 such minor or of the person under whose care or government the minor may before a license shall be issued. The parents, guardians, or other 19 20 persons whose consent it shall be necessary to obtain and file with the town or city clerk before the license shall issue, shall personally appear and acknowledge or execute the same before the town or city 22 or some other officer authorized to administer oaths and take 23 24 acknowledgments provided that where such affidavit or acknowledgment is 25 made before an official other than an officer designated in section two 26 hundred ninety-eight of the real property law as authorized to take such 27 affidavit or acknowledgment if a conveyance of real property were being 28 acknowledged or proved, or if a certificate of authentication would be 29 required by section three hundred ten of the real property law to enti-30 tle the instrument to be recorded if it were a conveyance of real prop-31 erty, the consent when filed must have attached thereto a certificate of 32 authentication[-

3. If it shall appear upon an application for a marriage license that either party is under the age of sixteen years, the town or city clerk shall require, in addition to any consents provided for in this section,]; and

(b) the written approval [and consent] of a justice of the supreme court or of a judge of the family court, having jurisdiction over the town or city in which the application is made, to be attached to or endorsed upon the application, before the license is issued. The application for such approval [and consent] may be made by either minor party to the proposed marriage and shall be heard by the judge at chambers. The justice of the supreme court or the judge of the family court shall appoint an attorney for the child for each minor party immediately upon the application for approval. The attorney for the child must have received training in domestic violence including a component on forced marriage. All papers and records pertaining to any such application shall be sealed [by him] and withheld from inspection, except by order of a court of competent jurisdiction. Before issuing any approval, the justice of the supreme court or the judge of the family court shall:

(i) provide notification to each minor party of his or her rights, including but not limited to, rights in relation to termination of the marriage, child and spousal support, domestic violence services and access to public benefits and other services, which notification shall be developed by the office of court administration, in consultation with the office for the prevention of domestic violence;

(ii) with respect to each party, including a minor party, conduct a review of related decisions in court proceedings initiated pursuant to article ten of the family court act, and all warrants issued under the family court act, and reports of the statewide computerized registry of orders of protection established and maintained pursuant to section two hundred twenty-one-a of the executive law, and reports of the sex offender registry established and maintained pursuant to section one hundred sixty-eight-b of the correction law; and

- (iii) have an in camera interview, separately with each minor party, and make the following written affirmative findings:
- A. that it is the minor's own will that the minor enter into the marriage;
- B. that the minor is not being compelled by force, threat, persuasion, fraud, coercion or duress; and
- C. that the marriage will not endanger the mental, emotional or physical safety of the minor.

In making such findings, the court shall consider, among other relevant factors, the age difference between the parties intending to be married, whether there is a power imbalance between the parties intending to be married, whether the parties are incapable of consenting to a marriage for want of understanding, whether there is a history of domestic violence between the parties and whether there is a history of domestic violence between a party and either parties' or legal guardians' family members. The wishes of the parents or legal guardians of the minor intending to be married shall not be the sole basis for approval under this subdivision.

Upon the approval of the justice of the supreme court or the judge of the family court of the application to marry, each minor party shall have all the rights of an adult, including the right to enter into a contract, except for those specific constitutional and statutory age requirements such as, but not limited to, voting, use of alcoholic beverages, and other health or safety statutes relevant to him or her because of his or her age.

4. Before issuing any licenses herein provided for, the town or city clerk shall be entitled to a fee of thirty dollars, which sum shall be paid by the applicants before or at the time the license is issued. Any town or city clerk who shall issue a license to marry any persons one or both of whom shall not be at the time of the marriage under such license legally competent to marry without first requiring the parties to such marriage to make such affidavits and statements or who shall not require 40 the production of documentary proof of age or the procuring of the approval and consents provided for by this article, which shall show that the parties authorized by said license to be married are legally 44 competent to marry, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction thereof shall be fined in the sum of one hundred dollars for each and every offense. On or before the fifteenth day of each month, each town and city clerk, except in the city of New York, shall transmit to the state commissioner of health twenty-two dollars and fifty cents of the amount received for each fee collected, which shall be paid into the vital records management account as provided by section ninety-sevencccc of the state finance law. In any city the balance of all fees collected for the issuing of a marriage license, or for solemnizing a 53 marriage, so far as collected for services rendered by any officer or 54 employee of such city, shall be paid monthly into the city treasury and may by ordinance be credited to any fund therein designated, and said 55 ordinance, when duly enacted, shall have the force of law in such city.

1 Notwithstanding any other provisions of this article, the clerk of any city with the approval of the governing body of such city is hereby authorized to designate, in writing filed in the city clerk's office, a deputy clerk, if any, and/or other city employees in such office to receive applications for, examine applications, investigate and issue marriage licenses in the absence or inability of the clerk of said city to act, and said deputy and/or employees so designated are hereby vested with all the powers and duties of said city clerk relative thereto. Such deputy and/or employees shall perform said duties without additional compensation.

[4+] 5. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the city clerk of the city of New York, before issuing any licenses herein provided for, shall be entitled to a fee of twenty-five dollars, which sum shall be paid by the applicants before or at the time the license is issued and all such fees so received shall be paid monthly into the city treasury.

§ 2. Section 13-b of the domestic relations law, as amended by chapter 652 of the laws of 2007, is amended to read as follows:

§ 13-b. Time within which marriage may be solemnized. A marriage shall not be solemnized within twenty-four hours after the issuance of marriage license, unless authorized by an order of a court of record as hereinafter provided, nor shall it be solemnized after sixty days from the date of the issuance of the marriage license unless authorized pursuant to section three hundred fifty-four-d of the executive law. Every license to marry hereafter issued by a town or city clerk, in addition to other requirements specified by this chapter, must contain a statement of the day and the hour the license is issued and the period during which the marriage may be solemnized. It shall be the duty of the clergyman or magistrate performing the marriage ceremony, or if the marriage is solemnized by written contract, of the judge before whom the contract is acknowledged, to annex to or endorse upon the marriage license the date and hour the marriage is solemnized. A judge or justice the supreme court of this state or the county judge of the county in which either party to be married resides, or if such party is [under sixteem] at least seventeem years of age, the judge of the family court of such county, if it shall appear from an examination of the license and any other proofs submitted by the parties that one of the parties is in danger of imminent death, or by reason of other emergency public interest will be promoted thereby, or that such delay will work irreparable injury or great hardship upon the contracting parties, or one of them, may, upon making written affirmative findings under subdivision three of section fifteen of this article, make an order authorizing the immediate solemnization of the marriage and upon filing such order with the clergyman or magistrate performing the marriage ceremony, or if the marriage is to be solemnized by written contract, with the judge before whom the contract is acknowledged, such clergyman or magistrate may solemnize such marriage, or such judge may take such acknowledgment as the case may be, without waiting for such three day period and twentyfour hour period to elapse. The clergyman, magistrate or judge must file such order with the town or city clerk who issued the license within five days after the marriage is solemnized. Such town or city clerk must record and index the order in the book required to be kept by him or her for recording affidavits, statements, consents and licenses, and when so recorded the order shall become a public record and available in any prosecution under this section. A person who shall solemnize a marriage in violation of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of fifty dollars for each offense, and in addition thereto, his or her right to solemnize a marriage shall be suspended for ninety days.

- § 3. Section 15-a of the domestic relations law, as amended by chapter 126 of the laws of 1984, is amended to read as follows:
- § 15-a. Marriages of minors under [fourteen] seventeen years of age.

 7 Any marriage in which either party is under the age of [fourteen] seven
 8 teen years is hereby prohibited. Any town or city clerk who shall know
 9 ingly issue a marriage license to any persons, one or both of whom shall

 10 be at the time of their contemplated marriage actually under the age of

 11 [fourteen] seventeen years, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and on 12 conviction thereof shall be fined in the sum of one hundred dollars.

- 13 § 4. This act shall take effect on the thirtieth day after it shall 14 have become a law and shall apply to licenses issued on and after such 15 effective date and to marriages that have not been solemnized prior to 16 such effective date.
