AN ACT to amend the public service law and the public authorities law, in relation to oversight by the New York state public authorities control board

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

- 1 Section 1. The public service law is amended by adding a new section 2 5-a to read as follows:
- § 5-a. Oversight by the New York state public authorities control board. 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the commission shall apply to, and obtain the approval of, the New York state public authorities control board created pursuant to article one-A of the public authorities law prior to taking any of the following actions:
- 9 (a) an increase in rates, charges, surcharges, assessments, fees,
  10 levies, or any other collections, which would increase revenues obtained
  11 from ratepayers by more than seven hundred thousand dollars and which
  12 revenues are collected solely for and directed to the New York state
  13 energy research and development authority and would be effectuated
  14 through a single order, decision, or administrative action or through a 15 series of such activities; or
- 16 (b) a transfer, repurposing, reprogramming, or any other action that 17 would change the use of money directed to the New York state energy
  18 research and development authority previously designated or intended for 19 a different purpose.
- 20 2. Each such application by the commission to the New York state
  21 public authorities control board shall contain a description of any such

Any application made concerning a project shall include the terms, conditions and dates of the repayment of state appropriations authorized by law pursuant to a repayment agreement. Any subsidiary of, or corporation with the same members or directors as, a public benefit corporation subject to the provisions of this section shall also be subject to the provisions of this section. All applications and submissions to the board required to be made by a subsidiary shall be made on behalf of such subsidiary by the public benefit corporation which created the subsidiary.

1-b. No public benefit corporation subject to the provisions of this section shall make any commitment, enter into any agreement or incur any indebtedness for the purpose of acquiring, constructing, or financing any project unless prior approval has been received from the board by such public benefit corporation as provided herein.

- § 4. Subdivision 3 of section 51 of the public authorities law, as added by chapter 838 of the laws of 1983, is amended to read as follows:
- 3. The board may approve applications only upon its determination that [ -] :
- a. with relation to any proposed project, there are commitments of funds sufficient to finance the acquisition and construction of such project; or
  - b. a full cost-benefit analysis, including public comment and hearings, has been conducted as to the impact of any of the following activities that are subject to its jurisdiction pursuant to this section:
- (1) an increase in rates, charges, surcharges, assessments, fees, levies, or any other collections; or
- (2) a transfer, repurposing, reprogramming, or any other action that 33 would change the use of money previously designated or intended for a different purpose; and
- c. that such cost-benefit analysis shows that the actions described in 36 paragraph b of this subdivision are just, reasonable, and in the public In determining the sufficiency of commitments of funds, the interest. board may consider commitments of funds, projections of fees or other revenues and security, which may, in the discretion of the board, include collateral security sufficient to retire a proposed indebtedness 41 or protect or indemnify against potential liabilities proposed to be 42 undertaken. A copy of such determination shall be submitted to the chief 43 executive officer of the appropriate public benefit corporation or other 44 entity subject to the board's jurisdiction and submitted to the state comptroller.
  - § 5. This act shall take effect immediately.
