acts of domestic violence or any other abuse, human trafficking, or stalking, as defined in the penal law, whether or not the victim seeks or receives services within the criminal justice system.

- 4. "Domestic violence program" means any office, institution, center or provider offering services to victims of domestic violence or any other abuse, human trafficking, or stalking including, but not limited to, shelter, counseling, a crisis line, emergency and follow-up intervention, information, referral services, and medical, legal, and social services advocacy.
- 5. "Domestic violence advocate" means an employee or volunteer of a domestic violence program. "Domestic violence advocate" shall not include a person employed by, or under the direct supervision of, a law enforcement agency, the department of law, or any governmental agency or department while such employee or volunteer is performing duties on behalf of or acting in the course of employment of such governmental agency or department.
- (b) Confidential information privileged. A rape crisis counselor or domestic violence advocate shall not be required to disclose a communication made by his or her client to him or her, or advice given thereon, in the course of his or her services nor shall any clerk, stenographer or other person working for the same program as the rape crisis counselor or domestic violence advocate or for the rape crisis counselor or domestic violence advocate be allowed to disclose any such communication or advice given thereon nor shall any records made in the course of the services given to the client or recording of any communications made by or to a client be required to be disclosed, nor shall the client be compelled to disclose such communication or records, except:
- 1. that a rape crisis counselor or domestic violence advocate may 29 disclose such otherwise confidential communication to the extent author-30 ized by the client;
- 2. that a rape crisis counselor or domestic violence advocate shall 32 not be required to treat as confidential a communication by a client which reveals the intent to commit a crime or harmful act;
  - 3. in a case in which the client waives the privilege by instituting charges against the rape crisis counselor or domestic violence advocate or the rape crisis program or domestic violence program and such action or proceeding involves confidential communications between the client and the rape crisis counselor or domestic violence advocate.
  - (c) Who may waive the privilege. The privilege may only be waived by the client, the personal representative of a deceased client, or, in the case of a client who has been adjudicated incompetent or for whom a conservator has been appointed, the committee or conservator.
- (d) Limitation on waiver. A client who, for the purposes of obtaining compensation under article twenty-two of the executive law or insurance 44 benefits, authorizes the disclosure of any privileged communication to an employee of the office of victim services or an insurance representative shall not be deemed to have waived the privilege created by this section.
- 49 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
