Introduced by Sens. DIAZ, AVELLA, MONTGOMERY -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Aging

AN ACT to amend the elder law, in relation to establishing the home delivered meal assistance program

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The elder law is amended by adding a new section 224 to
2 read as follows:

3 § 224. Home delivered meal assistance program. 1. Any person that (a)
4 meets the criteria established in subdivision two of this section, (b)
5 who is not receiving the services of the home delivered meal assistance
6 program due to inadequate funding and (c) is currently on a waiting list
7 for the home delivered meal assistance program, shall receive the 8 services of the home delivered meal assistance program.

9 2. Any person eligible to receive the services of the home delivered
10 meal assistance program must meet the following criteria:

11 (a) is sixty years of age or older;
12 (b) is incapacitated due to accident, illness or frailty;
13 (c) lacks the support of family, friends or neighbors; and
14 (d) is unable to prepare meals due to a lack or inadequacy of facili-
15 ties, or an inability to shop, cook or prepare meals safely, or a lack 16 of knowledge or skill.

17 3. The spouse of a person who meets the criteria established in subdi-
18 vision two of this section, regardless of age, may receive the services 19 of the home delivered meal assistance program if receipt of such 20 services is in the best interest of the homebound elderly person.

21 4. The area agency must ensure that each person referred for or 22 requesting the services of the home delivered meal assistance program is 23 assessed by the area agency or such area agency's subcontracting organ-
24 ization to perform such assessment. Such assessment shall determine
25 that the person referred for or requesting the services of the home

1 delivered meal assistance program meets the criteria established in
2 subdivision two of this section.

3 (a) The area agency must also document adequate follow-up and reas-
4 essment.

5 (b) The area agency must assure the use of standardized client assess-
6 ment procedures that are consistent with the office's guidelines.

7 § 2. Reporting. Designated agencies shall report to the director of 8 the office for the aging, at a time and manner to be decided upon by 9 such director, the following:

10 (a) the number of persons who are on waiting lists pursuant to subdi-
11 vision 1 of section 224 of the elder law.

12 (b) the amount of local funding each designated agency contributes 13 towards the home delivered meal assistance program.

14 (c) the point during the contract period each designated agency
15 expends all state funding for the home delivered meal assistance
16 program.

17 § 3. The director of the office for the aging shall promulgate rules
18 and regulations he or she deems appropriate to effectuate the purposes
19 of this act.

20 § 4. The responsibility of the area agency shall be contingent upon 21 the state appropriation received pursuant to subdivision 1 of section
22 224 of the elder law for such services from the state. In no event shall 23 this section provide a private right of action by any person against the 24 area agency.

25 § 5. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after 26 it shall have become a law.
