Introduced by Sen. DIAZ -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Banks

AN ACT to amend the banking law, in relation to requiring banking institutions to accept the Dominican consular identification card issued by the consulate general of the Dominican Republic as a valid form of identification for all banking transactions

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

- Section 1. The banking law is amended by adding a new section 9-x to 2 read as follows:
- § 9-x. Dominican identification card, valid form of identification. 1.
  Every banking institution shall accept as a valid form of identification for all banking transactions the Dominican identification card issued by the consulate general of the Dominican Republic.
- 7 2. For the purposes of this section, the term "banking institution"
  8 shall mean and include all banks, trust companies, savings banks,
  9 savings and loan associations, licensed foreign banks and credit unions.
- 3. The department shall review the legitimacy of identification cards issued by foreign governments to their nationals living in the state and recommend which ones, if any, should be accepted by banking institutions in the state as proof of identification by the identification holder for the purpose of engaging in banking services.
  - 4. The department shall recommend:

- 16 (a) other required forms of identification by foreign nationals living
  17 in the state, if any, to supplement verification needed by banking 18 services in order to meet standing rules, regulations, or laws with 19 regards to accessing banking services;
- 20 (b) any legislative measures necessary to facilitate access to banking 21 services by foreign nationals who are currently considered undocumented 22 immigrants;
