a pattern of street gang criminal activity, or any real property that is erected, established, maintained, owned, leased, or used by any criminal 3 street gang enterprise for the purpose of conducting criminal street gang enterprise activity constitutes a nuisance, that shall be enjoined, abated, and prevented, and for which damages may be recovered, whether it is a public or private nuisance.

- 2. Any action for an injunction or abatement filed pursuant to subdivision one of this section shall proceed according to the provisions of the civil practice law and rules, except that all of the following shall apply:
- 11 (a) the court shall not assess a civil penalty against any person unless that person knew or should have known of the unlawful acts 12 13 committed on or in the premises;
 - (b) no order of eviction or closure may be entered;
- (c) all injunctions issued shall be limited to those necessary to 16 protect the health and safety of the residents or the public or those 17 necessary to prevent further criminal activity; and
 - (d) suit may not be filed until a thirty-day notice period of the unlawful use or criminal conduct has been provided to the owner by mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, to the last known address.
 - 3. No not-for-profit or charitable organization which is conducting its affairs with ordinary care and skill, and no governmental entity, shall be abated pursuant to the provisions of subdivisions one and two of this section.
 - 4. Nothing in this section shall preclude any aggrieved person from seeking any other remedy provided by law. § 280.30 Preemption.

Nothing in this article shall preempt an appropriate alternative or additional charge pursuant to this chapter, including but not limited to, a charge pursuant to section 120.06 (gang assault in the second degree), or section 120.07 (gang assault in the first degree); or prevent a local government from adopting and enforcing laws consistent with this article relating to criminal street gang enterprise activity and criminal street gang enterprise violence. Where local laws duplicate or supplement this article, the provisions of this article shall be construed as providing alternative remedies and not as preempting such local laws.

- § 2. Severability. If any provision of this act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance, shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unconstitutional, such judgment shall not affect, impair or invalidate the remainder thereof, but shall be confined in its operation to the provision of this act, or in its application to the person or circumstance, directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment shall have been rendered.
- 45 § 3. This act shall take effect on the first of November next succeed-46 ing the date on which it shall have become a law.
