§ 209-ff. Substance and alcohol abuse counseling and treatment for police officers. 1. Notwithstanding any law, rule, regulation or charter to the contrary, every municipality which has a police department or police district shall provide substance abuse and alcohol abuse counseling and treatment for police officers employed by such municipality upon application by any such officer for such treatment. If such counseling or treatment is provided by a person or organization which is not part of the municipal government, the applying police officer must use any health insurance which he or she has to cover the cost of such counseling or treatment so far as is possible. Any costs not covered by such insurance shall be paid by the municipality.

2. Employers, laboratories and the agents thereof who receive or have access to information concerning counseling or treatment of a police officer for substance abuse or alcohol abuse shall keep such information confidential. Except where the release of such information is compelled by subpoena or court order, and such information shall be released only upon written consent voluntarily executed by the employee.

3. Nothing in this subdivision shall supercede any collective bargaining agreement in effect on the effective date of this section. No collective bargaining agreement made after the effective date of this section shall negate the provisions of this subdivision, nor shall
