IN SENATE

March 3, 2017

Introduced by Sen. DIAZ -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Consumer Protection

AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to mercantile establishments and the defense of lawful detention

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 218 of the general business law, as amended by chapter 374 of the laws of 1994, is amended to read as follows:

§ 218. $\underline{1.}$ Defense of lawful detention. In any action for false arrest, false imprisonment, unlawful detention, defamation of character, assault, trespass, or invasion of civil rights, brought by any person by reason of having been detained on or in the immediate vicinity of the premises of (a) a retail mercantile establishment for the purpose of investigation or questioning as to criminal possession of an anti-security item as defined in section 170.47 of the penal law or as to the 10 ownership of any merchandise, or (b) a motion picture theater for the 11 purposes of investigation or questioning as to the unauthorized operation of a recording device in a motion picture theater, it shall be a 12 13 defense to such action that the person was detained in a reasonable 14 manner and for not more than a reasonable time to permit such investi-15 gation or questioning by a peace officer acting pursuant to his special duties, police officer or by the owner of the retail mercantile establishment or motion picture theater, his authorized employee or agent, and that such officer, owner, employee or agent had reasonable grounds to believe that the person so detained was guilty of criminal possession 20 of an anti-security item as defined in section 170.47 of the penal law or was committing or attempting to commit larceny on such premises of 22 such merchandise or was engaged in the unauthorized operation of a 23 recording device in a motion picture theater.

2. As used in this section, "reasonable grounds" shall include, but 25 not be limited to, knowledge that a person [(i)] (a) has concealed possession of unpurchased merchandise of a retail mercantile establishment, or [(ii)] (b) has possession of an item designed for the purpose of overcoming detection of security markings attachments placed on merchandise offered for sale at such an establishment, or [(iii)] (c) has possession of a recording device in a theater in which a motion picture is being exhibited [and a].

- 3. A "reasonable time" shall mean the period of time [necessary to permit the person detained to make a statement or to refuse to make a statement, and the time necessary], not to exceed one hour, except for certain extenuating circumstances, to examine employees and records of the mercantile establishment relative to the ownership of the merchandise, or possession of such an item or device.
- 13 4. Under no circumstances shall "reasonable time" include, nor shall 14 the release from detention by a mercantile establishment be conditioned 15 upon, any requirement that the person detained for the alleged commis-16 sion of a larceny, or his or her parent or legal guardian, enter into any agreement to pay, directly or through the extension of credit, the 17 civil damages and penalties provided for in section 11-105 of the gener-18 19 al obligations law; or sign any paperwork whatsoever presented to that 20 individual detained or sign any paperwork whatsoever presented to his or 21 her parent or legal quardian, particularly the prepared form that states, in essence: "THE MERCANTILE ESTABLISHMENT DIDN'T COERCE YOU IN 22 ANY WAY INTO SIGNING ANYTHING, YOU SIGNED VOLUNTARILY." Every person who 23 24 is detained pursuant to this section, and, if, during such detention 25 makes an oral statement or signs any statement or documents, or his or 26 her parent or legal quardian signs any statement or documents, shall 27 upon his or her release be provided with a written transcript of such oral statement and copies of any statement or documents so signed. Any 28 29 statement described in this subdivision, prior to it being signed, shall 30 be translated into the language spoken by the person detained, or in the 31 case of a minor, the language spoken by such detainee's parent or legal 32 quardian.
 - 5. Such detention at such vicinity shall not authorize the taking of such person's fingerprints at such vicinity unless the taking of fingerprints is otherwise authorized by section 160.10 of the criminal procedure law and are taken by the arresting or other appropriate police officer or agency described therein in accordance with section 140.20 or 140.27 of such law. Whenever fingerprints are taken, the requirements of article one hundred sixty of the criminal procedure law shall apply as if fully set forth herein.
- 41 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
