1 § 2999-jj. Creation of fund and cooperating agencies. The department, 2 within amounts appropriated, shall establish the medical professionals
3 across rural New York state student loan repayment fund pilot program, 4 in association with the empire state development corporation. The 5 department is also directed to consult with the Fort Drum regional 6 health planning organization and the Iroquois healthcare association as 7 it deems appropriate. Funds shall be transferred by the commissioner of 8 taxation and finance to the department for use as described herein.

9 § 2999-kk. Administration of funds. Monies in the fund shall be:

10 1. held by the department pursuant to this section as custodian pursu-11 ant to an agreement with the commissioner of taxation and finance, and 12 the empire state development corporation, until transferred pursuant to 13 this section; and 14 2. invested by the department in accordance with the investment guide-15 lines of the comptroller during said custodial period. All investment 16 income shall be credited to, and shall be deposited in, the fund.

17 § 2999-ll. Administration agreement. The commissioner of taxation and 18 finance, the empire state development corporation, and the department 19 shall enter into an agreement, subject to the approval of the director 20 of the budget, for the purpose of administering the fund. A copy of such 21 agreement, and any amendments thereto, shall be provided to the chair of 22 the senate finance committee, the director of the division of budget, 23 and the chair of the assembly ways and means committee. The agreement 24 shall specify that the department shall administer the fund in a manner 25 that will benefit the public by encouraging the availability of profes-26 sional service providers, in compliance with all applicable laws, rules, 27 regulations and other requirements.

28 § 2999-mm. Responsibilities upon effective date of agreement. Upon the 29 effective date of the agreement, custody of, and responsibility for, the 30 fund shall be taken up by the department, subject to the requirements of 31 its agreement with the commissioner of taxation and finance and the 32 empire state development corporation. Such agreement shall include, but 33 not be limited to, the following provisions:

34 1. the department shall be responsible for the receipt, management and 35 expenditure of monies held in the fund;

36 2. the department shall maintain books and records pertaining to all 37 monies received and disbursed pursuant to this section and the agree-38 ment;

39 3. monies in such fund shall be utilized for the purpose of providing 40 student loan repayment funding to qualifying professionals;

41 4. participating professionals shall be chosen by the department
42 through an application process approved by the department, the empire 43 state development corporation, and the comptroller;

44 5. the department shall report quarterly on transactions pertaining to 45 the fund in a form and manner specified by the comptroller in consulta-46 tion with the commissioner of taxation and finance, and the empire state 47 development corporation, including but not limited to: receipts or 48 deposits to the fund, disbursements, loans or credit enhancement made 49 from the fund, investment income, and the balance on hand as of the end 50 of the month for each such quarter;

51 6. the department shall be required to invest monies on deposit in the 52 fund in accordance with investment guidelines meeting the requirements 53 of the comptroller, and all investment income shall be credited to the 54 fund, and spent therefrom only for the purposes set forth in this 55 section;

1 7. fund monies shall be held in trust and used for the benefit of 2 participating professionals;

3 8. after two years, the department shall submit a report to the gover-4 nor and legislature detailing the performance participation and impact 5 of the pilot program; and 6 9. any other term or condition as determined by the department, in 7 consultation with the commissioner of taxation and finance and the 8 empire state development corporation.

9 § 2999-nn. Documentation. Payments from the fund shall be made pursu-10 ant to a written agreement between the department and the participating 11 professional, specifying the terms of the payments. The agreement shall 12 be in such form and content as shall be acceptable to the comptroller 13 and department, and may include such further written documentation 14 and/or agreements as shall be required in the judgment of the comp-15 troller and department. Terms may include rescission of payments if a 16 participating professional does not comply with this section or the 17 terms of the participating professional's agreement with the department.

18 § 2999-oo. Commitment. Professionals shall be eligible to participate 19 in this program provided that in addition to any other requirements set 20 forth in this article they:

21 1. make a two year commitment to practice in a tract or county defined 22 by the health resources and services administration as being "rural" or 23 eligible for a rural health grant; and 24 2. such tract is situated, in whole or in part, in the counties of 25 Madison, Clinton, Essex, Franklin, Hamilton, Herkimer, Jefferson, Lewis, 26 Oswego, or St. Lawrence.

27 § 2999-pp. Participating professionals. The following professionals 28 shall be eligible to receive the benefits of this fund:

29 1. home care service workers, clinical laboratory practitioners, clin-30 ical laboratory technologists, clinical laboratory cytotechnologists, 31 clinical laboratory technicians, or histological technicians;

32 2. licensed psychologists, licensed master social workers, or licensed 33 clinical social workers;

34 3. midlevel practitioners such as a physical therapist, physiothera-35 pist, mechanotherapist, dentist, dental hygienist, dental assistant, 36 nurse practitioner, psychiatric nurse practitioner, physician assistant, 37 or psychiatrist who is a diplomate of the American board of psychiatry 38 and neurology or is eligible to be certified by that board or is certi-39 fied by the American osteopathic board of neurology and psychiatry or is 40 eligible to be certified by that board;

41 4. speech-language pathologists or audiologists, occupational thera-42 pists, or respiratory therapists;

43 5. licensed pharmacists;

44 6. nurses in nursing homes, such as registered professional nurses, 45 licensed practical nurses, or clinical nurse specialists, provided that 46 their service commitment, in addition to any other criteria listed in 47 this article, will also be in a licensed nursing home, intermediate care 48 facility for the developmentally disabled, or hospital if it owns or 49 operates a licensed nursing home, and the professional will spend at 50 least half of their working hours in the nursing home; and 51 7. optometrists, as defined in section seventy-one hundred one of the 52 education law.

53 § 2999-gg. Compensation. Participating professionals shall be compen-54 sated in the form of payments against their student loans made in the 55 following amounts:

1 1. fifty percent of total qualifying debt annually, up to a maximum 2 annual amount of five thousand dollars for professionals listed in 3 subdivision one of section twenty-nine hundred ninety-nine-pp of this 4 article;

5 2. fifty percent of total qualifying debt annually, up to a maximum 6 annual amount of ten thousand dollars for professionals listed in subdi-7 vision two of section twenty-nine hundred ninety-nine-pp of this arti-8 cle;

9 3. fifty percent of total qualifying debt annually, up to a maximum 10 annual amount of twenty thousand dollars for professionals listed in 11 subdivision three of section twenty-nine hundred ninety-nine-pp of this 12 article;

13 4. fifty percent of total qualifying debt annually, up to a maximum 14 annual amount of twelve thousand dollars for professionals listed in 15 subdivision four of section twenty-nine hundred ninety-nine-pp of this 16 article;

17 5. fifty percent of total qualifying debt annually, up to a maximum 18 annual amount of fifteen thousand dollars for professionals listed in 19 subdivision five of section twenty-nine hundred ninety-nine-pp of this 20 article;

21 6. fifty percent of total qualifying debt annually, up to a maximum 22 annual amount of five thousand dollars for professionals listed in 23 subdivision six of section twenty-nine hundred ninety-nine-pp of this 24 article; and

25 7. fifty percent of total qualifying debt annually, up to a maximum 26 annual amount of twelve thousand dollars for professionals listed in 27 subdivision seven of section twenty-nine hundred ninety-nine-pp of this 28 article.

29 § 2999-rr. Continued qualification. Provided that a professional 30 continues to qualify for this program after two years and such pilot 31 program is still in operation, then loan payment amounts will be the 32 balance of any qualifying debt up to the maximum amounts listed in 33 section two thousand nine hundred ninety-nine-qq of this article.

34 § 2999-ss. Conditions barring participation. Participating profes-35 sionals shall not:

36 1. have any outstanding service obligations to the federal government, 37 state, or other entity; or

38 2. have any judgment liens arising from federal or state debt, and 39 must not be delinquent in child support payments.

40 § 2999-tt. Minimum qualifications for participation. Participating 41 professionals must possess a fully-executed employment contract, or must 42 be able to submit sufficient evidence of intent to establish a private 43 practice and subsequently do so, and must possess all licenses required 44 to practice their chosen profession in the state of New York. Partic-45 ipating professionals must also be a U.S. citizen or permanent resident, 46 and become a legal resident of New York state within ninety days of 47 beginning employment.

48 § 2999-uu. Application criteria. The entities involved in this program 49 may establish additional application criteria at their discretion, 50 provided that such criteria does not narrow the availability of funds or 51 conflict with the intent of this article.

52 § 2999-vv. Healthcare provider scoring and cohort size. Regardless of 53 funding levels, no more than thirty-two participating professionals may 54 enter the program in any fiscal year. Applications shall be collected 55 throughout the year, with a new cohort of no more than eight participating professionals approved each quarter. Each application received shall receive a score which will be calculated as described herein:

1. the maximum score an applicant may receive is fifty. Two independent reviewers, blind to each other's evaluation, will score each applicant. The average of the scores given by each reviewer will be the applicant's final score. In the event any two applicants for the same cohort receive the same score, each of their applications will be reviewed a third time and a new average score computed from all three scores received;

2. scores will be calculated by taking the discipline specific health professional shortage areas score for the applicant's practice location, and adding a maximum of ten points based on the diversity of medical cases or issues treated at the practice location, and adding a maximum of fifteen points based on the diversity of the patient population in the tract or county where the applicant intends to practice; and

3. if a health professional shortage areas score is not available for the applicant's intended practice location then the department shall attempt to estimate one based on the same discipline specific criteria used by the health resources and services administration to generate a health professional shortage areas score.

§ 2999-ww. Announcement of results. All applicants granted admission to the program will be notified by email and United States mail within twenty-one business days following the conclusion of the quarter during which their application was received. Following the announcement of awards, applicants may request a debriefing from the department no later than ten calendar days from the date of the announcement. This debriefing will be limited to the positive and negative aspects of the specific applicant's application. In the event unsuccessful applicants wish to protest their results they must follow the protest procedures established by the office of the state comptroller in effect at the time their protest is entered.

1. In the event of default by a participating professional, within one year of defaulting the participating professional shall repay the state of New York the greater of either thirty-one thousand dollars, or the value of the past seven months of loan payments made by the state on behalf of the participating professional. The outstanding balance after one year shall accrue interest at a rate equal to that owed on underpayments of New York state income tax. Uncollectable amounts will be referred to the New York state attorney general's office for possible legal action.

2. Where default results from an action made by the department the participating professional will not be penalized.

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall have become a law; provided however, that effective immediately, the addition, amendment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implementation of this act on its effective date are authorized to be made and completed on or before such effective date.
