Introduced by Sen. HELMING -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Local Government

AN ACT to amend the general municipal law, in relation to purchasing on the behalf of a school district or a board of cooperative educational services

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 9 of section 103 of the general municipal law, as amended by chapter 269 of the laws of 2004, paragraph (a) as amended 2 by chapter 62 of the laws of 2016, is amended to read as follows:

9. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section to the contrary, a board of education may, on behalf of its school district, or a board of cooperative educational services, separately purchase eggs, livestock, fish, dairy products (excluding milk), juice, grains, and species of fresh fruit and vegetables directly from New York State producers or growers, or associations of producers and growers, provided that:

sion to purchase orders of more than twenty-five thousand dollars from an association of owners of such farms when no other producers or ers have offered to sell to such school;

- (b) the amount that may be expended by a school district or board of cooperative educational services in any fiscal year for such purchases shall not exceed an amount equal to twenty cents multiplied by the total number of days in the school year multiplied by the total enrollment of such school district or board of cooperative educational services;
- 9 (c) all such purchases shall be administered pursuant to regulations 10 promulgated by the commissioner of education. Such regulations shall: be developed in consultation with the commissioner of agriculture and 11 markets to accommodate and promote the provisions of the farm-to-school 12 13 program established pursuant to subdivision five-b of [the] section 14 sixteen of the agriculture and markets law and subdivision thirty-one of 15 section three hundred five of the education law as added by chapter two 16 of the laws of two thousand two; ensure that the prices paid by a 17 district or board of cooperative educational services for any items so purchased do not exceed the prices of comparable local farm products 18 19 that are available to districts through their usual purchases of such 20 items; ensure that all producers and growers who desire to sell to 21 school districts or boards of cooperative educational services can readily access information in accordance with the farm-to-school law; 22 include provisions for situations when more than one producer or grower 23 seeks to sell the same product to a district or board of cooperative 24 25 educational services to ensure that all such producers or growers have 26 an equitable opportunity to do so in a manner similar to the usual 27 purchasing practices of such districts or boards of cooperative educa-28 tional services; develop guidelines for approval of purchases of items 29 from associations of more than ten growers and producers; and, to the 30 maximum extent practicable, minimize additional paperwork, recordkeeping 31 and other similar requirements on both growers and producers and school 32 districts.
- 2. Section 103 of the general municipal law is amended by adding a 34 new subdivision 9-a to read as follows:
 - 9-a. Notwithstanding any provision of this section to the contrary, a county may separately purchase eggs, livestock, fish, dairy products, juice, grains, and species of fresh fruit and vegetables directly from New York state producers or growers, or associations of producers and growers, provided that:
 - (a) such association of producers or growers is comprised of ten or fewer owners of farms who also operate such farms and who have combined to fill the order of a county as herein authorized, provided however, that a county may apply to the commissioner of the office of general services for permission to purchase from an association of more than ten owners of such farms when no other producers or growers have offered to sell to such county;
 - (b) the amount that may be expended by a county in any fiscal year for such purchases shall not exceed the greater of:
 - (i) the expenditure threshold provided in subdivision one of this section; or
 - (ii) twenty cents multiplied by the total population of such county;
 - (c) all such purchases shall be administered pursuant to regulations promulgated by the commissioner of the office of general services and developed in consultation with the commissioner of agriculture and markets. Such regulations shall ensure that the prices paid by a county for any items so purchased do not exceed the prices of comparable local
