controlled by the business entity, and any political organization, 1 including but not limited to any political organization organized under 3 section five hundred twenty-seven of the internal revenue code, that is directly or indirectly controlled by the business entity, and any owner, officer, director or partner of such business entity, or a relative of such person.

- 2. (a) It shall be unlawful during the restricted participant contribution period for any person, organization, group of persons or business entity or any owner, director or officer, or their relative, of such business entity that submits an application for any grant or license, or a bid, quotation, offer, response or application to a state or local entity in response to a solicitation or request for proposal for procurement, construction, reconstruction or repair, to make a contribution to any officeholder of the state or local governmental entity or entities responsible for, or responsible for choosing, directly or indirectly, the person or persons responsible for, issuing such posting, solicitation, license, request for proposal, evaluating such response, or responsible for approving or awarding the final procurement contract, license or grant, or to any candidate for an office of such governmental entity including to the authorized political committees of such officeholder or candidate.
- 22 (b) For purposes of this section the assembly and senate shall be considered to be two separate and distinct governmental entities when a 23 24 posting or solicitation for procurement is issued by only one respective house. 25
 - (c) The state or local governmental entity directly responsible for issuing such posting or solicitation for procurement shall include a notice of the prohibition established by this section and the state governmental entity responsible for evaluating responses to such posting or solicitation shall provide, to any person, organization, group of persons, or business entity that submits a proposal in response to such posting or solicitation for procurement, a notice of the prohibition established by this section and the restricted vendor contribution period commencement date.
- 35 3. The restricted participant contribution period described in this 36 section shall commence, with respect to a specific person, organization, 37 group of persons, or business entity that submits a bid, quotation, 38 application, offer or response to the state or local governmental entity 39 posting or solicitation, at the earliest of the date of application or bid, or the date of posting on a state or local governmental entity's 40 website, in a newspaper of general circulation or in the procurement 41 42 opportunities newsletter in accordance with article four-C of the 43 economic development law of written notice, advertisement or solicita-44 tion of a request for proposal, invitation for bids, or solicitations of 45 proposals, or any other method provided for by law or regulation for 46 soliciting a response from offerors intending to result in a procurement 47 contract grant or license with a state or local governmental entity or the date of application. The restricted participant contribution period 48 49 does not apply to a person, organization, group of persons or business entity that is responding to a state governmental entity's request for 50 51 information or other informational exchanges occurring prior to such 52 governmental entity's posting or solicitation for participation.
- 53 4. The restricted participation contribution period described in this 54 section shall end with respect to a specific person, organization, group of persons, or business entity as provided in paragraph (a) or (b) of 55 56 this subdivision.
