54 three and four of this section shall be entitled to receive a payment of 55 ten thousand dollars per month from the state for each month between the 56 time a claim is filed and the final judgement is recorded, provided

1 however that on motion of the attorney general the court may stay such 2 payment on the grounds that such claim is frivolous, that the claimant
3 is unlikely to prevail on the merits, or that the period of wrongful 4 incarceration was so short that significant damages and benefits should 5 not be awarded.

6 11. An exoneree found by the court to have served a period of wrongful 7 incarceration of more than one year or to have experienced significant 8 hardship resulting from such incarceration shall be ordered by the court

26 college, provided that the scholarship shall not exceed an amount that 27 is equal to the total cost of attendance determined for federal Title IV 28 student financial aid purposes.

29 14. Any and all benefits made available to parolees through the divi-
30 sion of parole shall also be made available to exonerees. Any state 31 contract with a service provider for parolees must also require the 32 service provider to also serve exonerees.

33 15. Nothing in this act shall be construed to prevent an exoneree from 34 pursuing further civil lawsuits against any state agencies or employees 35 for any reason, including in connection with the wrongful conviction.

36 16. (a) Any person claiming compensation and additional benefits under 37 this section based on a pardon that was granted on or after the effec-
