Introduced by Sen. ALCANTARA -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Finance

AN ACT to amend the state finance law, in relation to requiring state contractors and municipalities and public authorities receiving state funds to disclose their policies on preventing human trafficking within their supply chains

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The state finance law is amended by adding a new section
2 148 to read as follows:

3 § 148. Disclosure of human trafficking policy by state contractors.
4 All contract solicitations including but not limited to, invitations for 5 bids, requests for proposals, requests for applications and requests for 6 qualifications for contracts shall require that any offeror seeking 7 state contracts shall have in place a policy for preventing human traf-
8 ficking within its supply chain and shall disclose such policy before
9 any such contract shall be awarded.

10 § 2. The state finance law is amended by adding a new section 53-e to 11 read as follows:

12 § 53-e. Disclosure of human trafficking policy by municipalities and 13 public authorities. All municipalities and public authorities receiving 14 appropriations or allocations of state funds shall have in place a poli-15 cy for preventing human trafficking within their supply chains and shall 16 disclose to the state entity providing such funding such policy before
17 any such contract shall be awarded.

18 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
