STATE OF NEW YORK

5678

2017-2018 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

April 25, 2017

Introduced by Sen. GALLIVAN -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Judiciary

AN ACT to amend the civil practice law and rules, in relation to the applicability of certain provisions with respect to persons injured in the use of scaffolding and other devices for use by employees

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 1413 of the civil practice law and rules is renumbered section 1414 and a new section 1413 is added to read as follows:

§ 1413. Applicability to certain actions. 1. In any action or proceeding outside of the city of New York and the counties contained therein, to recover damages for personal injury, injury to property, or wrongful death pursuant to section two hundred forty, subdivisions one through five of section two hundred forty-one, or section two hundred forty-one-a of the labor law, where safety equipment or devices have been made available, and a person employed or otherwise entitled to the protection of the provisions of such section has failed to follow safety instructions or safe work practices in accordance with training provided, or failed to utilize provided safety equipment or devices, or engaged in a criminal act or was impaired by the use of drugs or alcohol, and such failure, act or impairment is a proximate cause of an injury to such person, the conduct attributable to such person shall not bar recovery, but the amount of damages otherwise recoverable shall be determined in accordance with section fourteen hundred eleven of this article to the extent that such conduct relates to the commission of a criminal act, impairment caused by the use of drugs or alcohol, the failure to use safety equipment or devices, the failure to comply with instructions or training regarding the use of safety equipment or devices or the failure to otherwise comply with safe work practices in accordance with safety training programs provided to such person. Such training programs shall include, but shall not be limited to, courses in EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD11197-01-7

construction safety and health certified by the United States Occupational Safety and Health Administration or the department of labor.

2. Nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to impose or create liability under such sections of the labor law referred to in subdivision one of this section, where a person employed or otherwise entitled to the protection of the provisions of such sections has failed to follow safety instructions or safe work practices in accordance with training provided, or failed to utilize provided safety equipment or devices, or engaged in a criminal act or was impaired by the use of drugs or alcohol, and such failure, act or impairment is the sole proximate cause of an injury to such person.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to all causes of actions accruing on or after such date.