AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to requiring certain disclosures by sperm and ovum storage facilities

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The general business law is amended by adding a new section 391-u to read as follows:

§ 391-u. Disclosure statement by sperm or ovum storage facility. (a) The commissioner of health shall make available a disclosure statement for medical facilities, or other facilities engaged in the business of 6 the storage of sperm or ovum to provide to clients of such facilities notification of the provisions of any existing state or federal laws on 8 the storage of sperm or ovum including any statutes of limitations relating to the inheritance rights of a child posthumously conceived 10 from the utilization of sperm or ovum stored with such facility. The 11 commissioner shall update such disclosure statement whenever he or she 12 deems necessary to reflect any significant changes in the law.

(b) Prior to engaging in any contractual agreement with a client for storage of sperm or ovum, each medical facility, or other facility, engaged in the business of providing such storage shall provide to the client a copy of the disclosure statement made available by the commissioner of health pursuant to subdivision (a) of this section. For ten 18 years after entering such contractual agreement, such facility shall keep the address or email address of each client and shall send to such address or email address any updated disclosure made available by the 21 commissioner pursuant to this subdivision.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

(c) Upon the expiration of the ten year notice period provided pursuant to subdivision (b) of this section, the facility shall send a notice to the client that the facility is no longer required to send updated disclosure statements to the client and that the client may wish to follow any changes to the laws in the future on his or her own.

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after it shall have become a law; provided that, effective immediately, the addition, amendment, and/or repeal of any rules and regulations necessary to implement the provisions of this act on its effective date are authorized and directed to be completed on or before such effective 11 date.
