26 Debtor's Bill of Rights

27 As a debtor who owes or may owe a consumer claim, you are given some 28 protection and rights by the New York and federal laws regulating debt
29 collection procedures. You should be aware of your rights and not 30 permit your rights to be violated. Some, not all, of the more important 31 protections are highlighted below.

33 household directly. However, they may not contact you with such frequen-34 cy, at unusual hours, or in a manner that can be expected to abuse or 35 harass you. They also cannot threaten action which they do not take in 36 the usual course of business.

37 2. A debt collector may not threaten to contact your employer regard-
38 ing a debt prior to obtaining a final judgment against you. However, a 39 debt collector may contact your employer to execute a wage assignment 40 agreement if you, the debtor, have agreed to the assignment.

41 3. A debt collector cannot use a communication which appears to be 42 authorized, issued, or approved by a government agency or attorney when 43 it is not.

44 4. A debt collector cannot disclose or threaten to disclose informa-
45 tion affecting your reputation for creditworthiness if the collector
46 knows or has reason to know the information is false. A debt collector 47 also cannot attempt or threaten to enforce a right when it knows or has 48 reason to know the right does not exist.
