§ 205. Human trafficking awareness and training. 1. Human trafficking recognition training program. a. For purposes of this section, "lodging facility" shall mean any inn, hotel, motel, motor court or other establishment that provides lodging to transient quests. Such term shall not include an establishment treated as a dwelling unit for the purposes of 8 any state or local law or regulation or an establishment located within a building that has five or less rooms for rent or hire and that is actually occupied as a residence by the proprietor of such establishment.

b. Every lodging facility shall require all employees who are likely 13 to interact or come into contact with quests to undergo a human traf-14 ficking recognition training program to provide training in the recognition of a human trafficking victim as defined in section four hundred eighty-three-aa of the social services law. Such training program shall be approved by the division of criminal justice services and the office 18 of temporary and disability assistance in consultation with the New York 19 state interagency task force on human trafficking. The training program 20 may be developed by a federal, state, or non-profit organization, and may be incorporated as part of the lodging facility's existing training 22 programs or may be provided by organizations or providers identified by the commissioner of the division of criminal justice services or the commissioner of the office of temporary and disability assistance, provided that the training includes all of the requirements of this section. Approved training programs may be made available through methods including, but not limited to, in-person instruction, electronic and video communication, or online programs.

- c. Any human trafficking recognition training program approved by the division of criminal justice services and the office of temporary and disability assistance in consultation with the New York state interagency task force on human trafficking as required in this section shall address no less than the following issues:
 - (i) the nature of human trafficking;
 - (ii) how human trafficking is defined in law;
- 14 (iii) how to identify victims of human trafficking;
- 15 (iv) relief and recovery options for survivors; and
- 16 (v) social and legal services available to victims.
- d. The commissioner of the division of criminal justice services and the commissioner of the office of temporary and disability assistance shall make available no more than six months after the effective date of this section a list of approved human trafficking recognition programs for use by a lodging facility.
- e. The training shall take place on the premises of the lodging facility and shall be considered compensable time.
 - 2. Record keeping requirements of human trafficking recognition training. Every keeper of each lodging facility shall maintain records indicating that each employee required to undergo an approved human trafficking recognition training program pursuant to this section has completed such training. Such records shall be kept on file by the lodging facility for the period during which the employee is employed by the lodging facility and for one year after such employment ends.
 - 3. Posting of notice concerning services for human trafficking victims. Every keeper of a lodging facility shall post in plain view and in a conspicuous place and manner in the public restrooms, and, if practicable, in the individual guest rooms, and near the public entrance or in another conspicuous location in clear view of the public and the employees where similar notices are customarily posted of such lodging facility, a notice developed by the office of temporary and disability assistance in consultation with the New York state interagency task force on human trafficking which shall include the national human trafficking hotline telephone number. Such notice shall also be displayed, if practicable, on the internet reservation website of such lodging facility or on the internet platform of a room remarketer, as defined in paragraph eight of subdivision (c) of section eleven hundred one of the tax law.
- § 2. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after it shall have become a law; provided however, that effective immediately, the commissioner of the division of criminal justice services and the commissioner of the office of temporary and disability assistance may make regulations and take other actions necessary to implement this act on its effective date.
