AN ACT to amend the highway law, in relation to extending the "POW-MIA Memorial Highway"

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 343-m of the highway law, as added by chapter 96 of the laws of 2001, is amended to read as follows:

§ 343-m. Portion of the state highway system to be known as the "POW-MIA Memorial Highway". All that portion of the state highway system constituting state route twelve beginning at the town of Morristown, county of St. Lawrence and continuing south through the counties of Jefferson ~~[and] Lewis [to Court Street in the city of Utica, county of]~~ Oneida, Madison and Chenango to its intersection with state route twelve-a in the town of Chenango, county of Broome, shall be designated and known as the "POW-MIA Memorial Highway".

§ 2. The commissioner of transportation shall provide for the installation and maintenance of adequate signing of the state highway system as designated pursuant to section one of this act. However, to avoid confusion and to limit any possible disruption of commerce, the designation called for pursuant to section one of this act shall be one of ceremonial nature and the official name of such highway shall not be changed as a result of this act.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets ~~[-]~~ is old law to be omitted.
