AN ACT relating to the placement of navigational aids adjacent to real property designated as "Coney Island"

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The commissioner, as defined in subdivision two of section two of the navigation law, in order to deter violations of paragraph f of subdivision one of section 73-a of the navigation law, by personal watercraft, may, through the issuance of a revocable permit, authorize the placing of aids to navigation within five hundred feet of any designated bathing area adjacent to all real property designated as "Coney Island." Any personal watercraft operator found to be operating within the area between the bathing beach and the navigational aid shall be subject to the penalties provided in subdivision three of section 73-a of the navigation law.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
