Introduced by Sen. FUNKE -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Investigations and Government Operations

AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to the authority of the attorney-general to investigate certain claims related to talent contracts

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 63 of the executive law is amended by adding a new subdivision 17 to read as follows:

17. Notwithstanding any law, regulation, policy or rule to the contrary, have the power and authority to investigate claims related to talent contracts, whether the agents who are signatory to those agreements reside physically within the state of New York or in another state or territory. The attorney-general shall have sole authority to determine whether to pursue a case under this subdivision, but should an investigation be conducted and a violation be discovered, the attorney-general shall refer such case to the chief prosecutor for the relevant jurisdiction for their consideration and possible action.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
