AN ACT to amend the penal law, in relation to making certain sex offenses committed against a child or a mentally disabled person class A-I felonies for which a sentence of life imprisonment without parole shall be imposed; and to repeal certain provisions of such law relating to sex offenses committed against children or the mentally disabled

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 60.06 of the penal law, as amended by chapter 482 of the laws of 2009, is amended to read as follows:

§ 60.06 Authorized disposition; murder in the first degree offenders; aggravated murder offenders; certain murder in the second degree offenders; certain sex offenders; certain terrorism offenders; criminal possession of a chemical weapon or biological weapon offenders; criminal use of a chemical weapon or biological weapon offenders.

When a defendant is convicted of murder in the first degree as defined in section 125.27 of this chapter, the court shall, in accordance with the provisions of section 400.27 of the criminal procedure law, sentence the defendant to death, to life imprisonment without parole in accordance with subdivision five of section 70.00 of this title, or to a term of imprisonment for a class A-I felony other than a sentence of life imprisonment without parole, in accordance with subdivisions one through three of section 70.00 of this title. When a person is convicted of murder in the second degree as defined in subdivision five of section 125.25 of this chapter or of the crime of aggravated murder as defined in subdivision one of section 125.26 of this chapter, the court shall sentence the defendant to life imprisonment without parole in accordance with subdivision five of section 70.00 of this title. When a defendant

1 is convicted of aggravated rape as defined in section 130.36, aggravated 2 criminal sexual act as defined in section 130.51 or course of sexual 3 conduct against a child in the first degree as defined in section 130.75
4 of this chapter, the court shall sentence the defendant to life impri-
5 sonment without parole in accordance with subdivision five of section 6 70.00 of this title. When a defendant is convicted of the crime of 7 terrorism as defined in section 490.25 of this chapter, and the speci-8 fied offense the defendant committed is a class A-I felony offense, or 9 when a defendant is convicted of the crime of criminal possession of a 10 chemical weapon or biological weapon in the first degree as defined in 11 section 490.45 of this chapter, or when a defendant is convicted of the 12 crime of criminal use of a chemical weapon or biological weapon in the 13 first degree as defined in section 490.55 of this chapter, the court 14 shall sentence the defendant to life imprisonment without parole in 15 accordance with subdivision five of section 70.00 of this title; 16 provided, however, that nothing in this section shall preclude or 17 prevent a sentence of death when the defendant is also convicted of 18 murder in the first degree as defined in section 125.27 of this chapter.
19 When a defendant is convicted of aggravated murder as defined in subdi-20 vision two of section 125.26 of this chapter, the court shall sentence 21 the defendant to life imprisonment without parole or to a term of impri-
22 sonment for a class A-I felony other than a sentence of life imprison-23 ment without parole, in accordance with subdivisions one through three 24 of section 70.00 of this title.

25 § 2. Subdivision 5 of section 70.00 of the penal law, as amended by 26 chapter 482 of the laws of 2009, is amended to read as follows:

27 5. Life imprisonment without parole. Notwithstanding any other 28 provision of law, a defendant sentenced to life imprisonment without 29 parole shall not be or become eligible for parole or conditional 30 release. For purposes of commitment and custody, other than parole and 31 conditional release, such sentence shall be deemed to be an indetermi-32 nate sentence. A defendant may be sentenced to life imprisonment with-33 out parole upon conviction for the crime of murder in the first degree 34 as defined in section 125.27 of this chapter and in accordance with the 35 procedures provided by law for imposing a sentence for such crime. A 36 defendant must be sentenced to life imprisonment without parole upon 37 conviction for the crime of terrorism as defined in section 490.25 of 38 this chapter, where the specified offense the defendant committed is a 39 class A-I felony; the crime of criminal possession of a chemical weapon 40 or biological weapon in the first degree as defined in section 490.45 of 41 this chapter; or the crime of criminal use of a chemical weapon or 42 biological weapon in the first degree as defined in section 490.55 of 43 this chapter; provided, however, that nothing in this subdivision shall 44 preclude or prevent a sentence of death when the defendant is also 45 convicted of the crime of murder in the first degree as defined in 46 section 125.27 of this chapter. A defendant must be sentenced to life 47 imprisonment without parole upon conviction for the crime of murder in 48 the second degree as defined in subdivision five of section 125.25 of 49 this chapter or for the crime of aggravated murder as defined in subdi-50 vision one of section 125.26 of this chapter. A defendant may be 51 sentenced to life imprisonment without parole upon conviction for the 52 crime of aggravated murder as defined in subdivision two of section 53 125.26 of this chapter. A defendant must be sentenced to life imprison-54 ment without parole upon conviction of the crime of aggravated rape as 55 defined in section 130.36, aggravated criminal sexual act as defined in section 130.51, or course of sexual conduct against a child in the first degree as defined in section 130.75 of this chapter.

§ 3. Subdivision 5 of section 70.00 of the penal law, as amended by section 40-a of part WWW of chapter 59 of the laws of 2017, is amended to read as follows:

5. Life imprisonment without parole. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a defendant sentenced to life imprisonment without parole shall not be or become eligible for parole or conditional release. For purposes of commitment and custody, other than parole and conditional release, such sentence shall be deemed to be an indeterminate sentence. A defendant may be sentenced to life imprisonment without parole upon conviction for the crime of murder in the first degree as defined in section 125.27 of this chapter and in accordance with the procedures provided by law for imposing a sentence for such crime. A defendant who was eighteen years of age or older at the time of the commission of the crime must be sentenced to life imprisonment without parole upon conviction for the crime of terrorism as defined in section 490.25 of this chapter, where the specified offense the defendant committed is a class A-I felony; the crime of criminal possession of a chemical weapon or biological weapon in the first degree as defined in section 490.45 of this chapter; or the crime of criminal use of a chemical weapon or biological weapon in the first degree as defined in section 490.55 of this chapter; provided, however, that nothing in this subdivision shall preclude or prevent a sentence of death when the defendant is also convicted of the crime of murder in the first degree as defined in section 125.27 of this chapter. A defendant who was seventeen years of age or younger at the time of the commission of the crime may be sentenced, in accordance with law, to the applicable indeterminate sentence with a maximum term of life imprisonment. A defendant must be sentenced to life imprisonment without parole upon conviction for the crime of murder in the second degree as defined in subdivision five of section 125.25 of this chapter or for the crime of aggravated murder as defined in subdivision one of section 125.26 of this chapter. A defendant may be sentenced to life imprisonment without parole upon conviction for the crime of aggravated murder as defined in subdivision two of section 125.26 of this chapter. A defendant must be sentenced to life imprisonment without parole upon conviction of the crime of aggravated rape as defined in section 130.36, aggravated criminal sexual act as defined in section 130.51, or course of sexual conduct against a child in the first degree as defined in section 130.75 of this chapter.
