2017-2018 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

May 11, 2017

Introduced by Sen. LANZA -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Insurance

AN ACT to amend the insurance law, in relation to creating a homeowners' bill of rights and a consumer guide on insuring against catastrophic loss caused by natural disasters

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1	Section 1. The insurance law is amended by adding a new section 3444-a
2	to read as follows:
3	§ 3444-a. Homeowners' bill of rights. (a) Any insurer that writes
4	personal lines insurance or commercial lines insurance policies that
5	cover loss of or damage to real property, personal property, or other б	liabilities for loss of or damage to property shall, upon issuance and
7	renewal of any such policy or contract, provide to an insured or poten-
8	tial insured written detailed disclosure in a notice prescribed or
9	approved by the superintendent describing clearly and in plain language
10	the following:
11	(1) any and all coverage for loss caused by certain occurrences,
12	including but not limited to fire, wind, windstorm, mudslide, hurricane,
13	snow, ice, water surge, or flood, coverages provided under the policy,
14	any limitations on or exclusions from coverage, circumstances that would
15	invalidate coverage under the policy, any applicable deductibles, and
16	when such deductibles shall be triggered;
17	(2) all information related to claims investigation and processing,
18	including but not limited to the process by which the insured may file a
19	claim, all applicable time frames required by law and regulation, all
20	necessary proof of loss information and other information the insurer
21	may require from the insured, the process by which the insured may file
22	a complaint with the department, and any other information deemed neces-
23	sary by the superintendent:

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1	(3) any and all rights a claimant has under the laws and policy when a
2	claim is denied or when the claimant rejects a settlement offer from the
3	insurer, including their right to file a complaint with the department;
4	(4) that the provisions of this policy may be modified or changed
5	pursuant to state or federal law when a local state of emergency is
6	declared pursuant to section twenty-four of the executive law, when the
7	governor declares a disaster emergency pursuant to section twenty-eight
8	of the executive law, or when the President of the United States issues
9	a major disaster or emergency declaration pursuant to the Robert T.
10	Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act (P.L. 93-288) and
11	how the insured may obtain information about any such modifications or
12	changes;
13	(5) information on how the insured may contact the insurer, including
14	the insurer's business hours, mailing address, phone number, fax number,
15	website address and email; and
16	(6) information on how the insured can obtain the consumer guide on
17	insuring against catastrophic losses created by the department pursuant
18	to section three hundred thirty-eight of this chapter and any other
19	guides, pamphlets, or other information the department has made publicly
20	available that would be beneficial to the insured.
21	(b) In the event that a policy subject to subsection (a) of this
22	section does not include coverage for damage as a result of weather
23	conditions, natural disasters, or other occurrences, including but not
24	limited to fire, wind, windstorm, mudslide, hurricane, snow, ice, water
25	surge, or flood, the insurer or producer shall, upon issuance and
26	renewal of any such policy or contract, provide to an insured or poten-
27	tial insured information on any additional coverage options, including
28	additional policies and riders, the New York Property Insurance Under-additional policies and liders, the New fork Property insurance under-
