AN ACT to amend the arts and cultural affairs law, in relation to the Amistad Commission

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivisions 1 and 4 of section 57.52 of the arts and 2 cultural affairs law, as added by chapter 404 of the laws of 2005, are 3 amended to read as follows:

amended to read as follows: 1. The Amistad commission (commission), so named in honor of the group of enslaved Africans led by Joseph Cinque who, while being transported in eighteen hundred thirty-nine on a vessel named the Amistad, gained their freedom after overthrowing the crew and eventually having their case successfully argued before the United States Supreme Court, is hereby created and established. The commission shall consist of nineteen 10 members, including the [secretary of state] commissioner of education or 11 his or her designee, the [commissioner of education] secretary of state 12 or his or her designee, and the chancellor of the state university of 13 New York or his or her designee, serving ex officio, and sixteen public members. Public members shall be appointed as follows: four public members, no more than two of whom shall be of the same political party, shall be appointed by the temporary president of the senate; four public 16 members, no more than two of whom shall be of the same political party, 17 shall be appointed by the speaker of the assembly; and eight public 18 19 members, no more than four of whom shall be of the same political party, shall be appointed by the governor. The public members shall be resi-21 dents of the state, chosen with due regard to broad geographic representation and ethnic diversity, who have an interest in the history of the 23 African slave trade and slavery in America and the contributions of 24 African-Americans to our society.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
