IN SENATE

May 11, 2017

Introduced by Sen. BOYLE -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Environmental Conservation

AN ACT to amend the environmental conservation law, in relation to making contests and competitions to take wildlife unlawful

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivisions 14, 15, and 16 of section 11-0901 of the environmental conservation law, subdivision 14 as renumbered by chapter 486 of the laws of 1985, are renumbered subdivisions 16, 17, and 18 and two new subdivisions 14 and 15 are added to read as follows:

14. It shall be unlawful for any person to organize, conduct, promote or participate in any contest or competition where the objective of such contest or competition is to take the greatest number of wildlife. Any wildlife injured during the course of a contest or competition conducted in violation of this subdivision shall be transported to a licensed wildlife rehabilitator or veterinarian for treatment or humane euthanasia. The remains of any wildlife killed during the course of a contest or competition conducted in violation of this subdivision shall be forfeited by every organizer, promoter, participant or any other person conducting or involved in such contest or competition, and the remains of such wildlife shall become the property of the department.

15. It shall be unlawful for any person to organize, conduct, promote or participate in any contest or competition where the objective of such contest or competition is to take wildlife of the greatest size or weight. Any wildlife injured during the court of a contest or competition conducted in violation of this subdivision shall be transported to a licensed wildlife rehabilitator or veterinarian for treatment or humane euthanasia. The remains of any wildlife killed during the course of a contest or competition conducted in violation of this subdivision shall be forfeited by every organizer, promoter, participant or any other person conducting or involved in such contest or competition, and
