AN ACT to amend the real property tax law, in relation to limiting the shift between classes of taxable property in the town of Clarkstown, county of Rockland

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 1 of section 1803-a of the real property tax 2 law is amended by adding a new paragraph (cc) to read as follows:

(cc) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (c) of this subdivi-4 sion to the contrary, in a special assessing unit that is not a city and for current base proportions to be determined by taxes based on such special assessing unit's two thousand seventeen assessment rolls, the current base proportion of any class shall not exceed the adjusted base proportion or adjusted proportion, whichever is appropriate, of the immediately preceding year by more than one percent. Where the computa-10 tion performed pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subdivision would otherwise produce such result, the current base proportion of such class 11 or classes shall be limited to such one percent increase and the legislative body of such special assessing unit shall alter the current base 14 proportion of any or all remaining classes so that the sum of the current base proportions equals one.

appropriate, of the immediately preceding year, by more than one percent, provided that such approved assessing unit has passed a local law, ordinance or resolution providing therefor. Where the computation of current base proportions would otherwise produce such result, the current base proportion of such class or classes shall be limited to such one percent increase and the legislative body of such approved assessing unit shall alter the current base proportion of either class so that the sum of the current base proportions equals one. Provided, however, that for school tax purposes only, the provisions of this subparagraph shall be applicable only to a school district wholly contained within the town of Clarkstown.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
