When the sex offender has been assigned a risk level in accordance with this section, dissemination of relevant information for that risk level shall thereafter be 3 4 made by the law enforcement agency having jurisdiction and the division shall be made as provided in this article. No later than thirty days prior to the board making a recommendation, the sex offender shall be 7 notified that his or her case is under review and that he or she is permitted to submit to the board any information relevant to the review. 9 After reviewing any information obtained, and applying the guidelines 10 established in subdivision five of section one hundred sixty-eight-l of 11 this article, the board shall within sixty calendar days make a recommendation regarding the level of notification pursuant to subdivision 12 13 section one hundred sixty-eight-l of this article and whether 14 such sex offender shall be designated a sexual predator, sexually 15 violent offender, or predicate sex offender as defined in subdivision 16 seven of section one hundred sixty-eight-a of this article. This recom-17 mendation shall be confidential and shall not be available for public inspection. It shall be submitted by the board to the county court or 18 supreme court and to the district attorney in the county of residence of 19 20 the sex offender and to the sex offender. It shall be the duty of 21 county court or supreme court in the county of residence of the sex 22 offender, applying the guidelines established in subdivision five of section one hundred sixty-eight-l of this article, to determine the 23 24 level of notification pursuant to subdivision six of section one hundred 25 sixty-eight-l of this article and whether such sex offender shall be 26 designated a sexual predator, sexually violent offender, or predicate 27 sex offender as defined in subdivision seven of section one hundred 28 sixty-eight-a of this article. If you fail to appear at 43 proceeding, without sufficient excuse, it shall be held in your absence. 44 Failure to appear may result in a longer period of registration or a 45 higher level of community notification because you are not present to 46 offer evidence or contest evidence offered by the district attorney." 47 The court shall also advise the sex offender that he or she has a right to a hearing prior to the court's determination, that he or she has the 48 right to be represented by counsel at the hearing and that counsel will 49 50 be appointed if he or she is financially unable to retain counsel. It shall be the duty of the court apply-10 ing the guidelines established in subdivision five of section one hundred sixty-eight-l of this article to determine the level of notifi-11 cation pursuant to subdivision six of section one hundred sixty-eight-l 12 13 of this article and whether such sex offender shall be designated a 14 sexual predator, sexually violent offender, or predicate sex offender as 15 defined in subdivision seven of section one hundred sixty-eight-a of 16 this article. Where there is a dispute between the parties concerning 17 the determinations, the court shall adjourn the hearing as necessary to permit the sex offender or the district attorney to obtain materials 18 relevant to the determinations from the state board of examiners of sex 19 20 offenders or any state or local facility, hospital, institution, office, 21 agency, department or division. Such materials may be obtained by subpoena if not voluntarily provided to the requesting party. In making 22 23 the determinations the court shall review any victim's statement and any 24 relevant materials and evidence submitted by the sex offender and the 25 district attorney and the recommendation and any material submitted by 26 the board, and may consider reliable hearsay evidence submitted by 27 either party, provided that it is relevant to the determinations. If 28 available, facts proven at trial or elicited at the time of a plea of 29 guilty shall be deemed established by clear and convincing evidence and 30 shall not be relitigated. The court shall render an order setting forth 31 its determinations and the findings of fact and conclusions of law on 32 which the determinations are based. A copy of the order shall be submit-33 ted by the court to the division. Where counsel has been assigned to represent the sex 38 offender upon the ground that the sex offender is financially unable to 39 retain counsel, that assignment shall be continued throughout the 40 pendency of the appeal, and the person may appeal as a poor person 41 42 pursuant to article eighteen-B of the county law. 43

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
