IN SENATE

June 16, 2017

Introduced by Sen. COMRIE -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Rules

AN ACT to amend the real property tax law, in relation to the impact of late filings on abatement benefits

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (a) of subdivision 5 of
2 section 489-cccccc of the real property tax law, as added by chapter 119
3 of the laws of 2008, is amended to read as follows:

4 (ii) Final application. Applicants shall file a final application for 5 benefits no later than one year from the date of issuance of the first 6 building permit for construction work, or, where construction work does 7 not require a building permit, no later than one year from the date of 8 commencement of construction. Abatement benefits shall not be granted
9 until the applicant files the final application. If the final applica-
10 tion is not filed within such one year period, abatement benefits shall 11 not be granted until such application is filed, and the department may 12 delay the granting of such benefits, at the department's discretion, to 13 investigate the reason for the late filing.

14 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to 15 projects that file preliminary applications on or after such date.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets
[-] is old law to be omitted.
