AN ACT to amend the public authorities law, the tax law and the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to authorizing and imposing a tax surcharge on the personal income of certain high-income residents of such city in order to fund transit infrastructure improvements and reduced fares for low-income residents of such city

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 1205 of the public authorities law is amended by adding a new subdivision 9 to read as follows:

9. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the authority and any 3 4 of its subsidiary corporations shall establish and implement a half-fare rate program for low-income residents of the city who are eighteen years 5 6 of age or older and younger than sixty-five years of age. For purposes of this subdivision, the term "low-income" shall mean an annual income 7 that is below the federal poverty line as determined by the United States department of health and human services pursuant to subdivision 2 9 of section 9902 of title 42 of the United States code. The half-fare 10 rate program established and implemented pursuant to this subdivision 11 12 shall include subway and bus service, exclusive of express bus service 13 during peak hours. Such half-rate program shall not be made available to 14 such low-income residents of the city eighteen years of age or older and younger than sixty-five years of age who are eligible for the half-fare 15 rate programs available to seniors and people with disabilities pursuant 17 to subdivision two or eight of this section. Upon the written request of the mayor and in accordance with such request, the authority or its subsidiary corporations shall delegate authority to the city to assist with the administration of such half-fare rate program, including the eligibility of applicants.

- 5 § 2. The public authorities law is amended by adding a new section 6 1270-i to read as follows:
 - § 1270-i. New York city dedicated personal income tax surcharge fund.

 1. The authority shall establish a fund to be known as the "New York city dedicated personal income tax surcharge fund" which shall be kept separate from and shall not be commingled with any other moneys of the authority. The fund shall consist of a "transit infrastructure improvement account" and a "low-income resident reduced fare account."
 - 2. There shall be deposited into the New York city dedicated personal income tax surcharge fund the moneys transferred to the metropolitan transportation authority from the New York city transitional finance authority pursuant to subsection (e) of section thirteen hundred four-E of the tax law, and any other provision of law directing or permitting the deposit of moneys in such fund, to be used exclusively for the financing of transit infrastructure improvements and reduced fares for low-income residents of the city of New York.
 - 3. Moneys in the transit infrastructure improvement account (a) shall be used to fund capital projects that satisfy the following criteria: (i) defined as state of good repair, normal replacement, or an Americans with Disabilities Act related system improvement within the capital program of the authority; and (ii) included in any of the following categories within the capital program of the authority: New York city transit authority buses, subway cars, track, line equipment, line structures, signals and communications, traction power, shops and yards, depots, service vehicles, passenger station projects, as needed to comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act, Staten Island railway and authority bus company projects; and (b) may be (i) pledged by the authority as security for the payment of principal and interest on bonds issued after July first, two thousand eighteen to finance capital projects that meet the criteria identified in paragraph (a) of this subdivision, including bonds issued to refund such bonds and (ii) used for payment of principal and interest on such bonds, funding of reserves required in connection with such bonds, and the payment of costs of issuance related to such bonds. To the extent moneys in the transit infrastructure improvement account have been pledged by the authority to secure the payment of principal and interest on bonds as herein provided, moneys deposited into the New York city dedicated personal income tax surcharge fund shall first be deposited into the transit infrastructure account to the extent necessary to make payments pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subdivision. After making such payments, moneys deposited in the transit infrastructure improvement account shall be used to fund projects that meet the criteria identified in paragraph (a) of this subdivision.
 - 4. The state does hereby pledge and agree with the holders of any issue of bonds secured by pledge described in paragraph (b) of subdivision three of this section that the state will not limit or alter the rights hereby vested in the metropolitan transportation authority to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with bondholders pursuant to this title, or in any way impair the rights and remedies of such holders or the security for such bonds until such bonds are fully paid and discharged. Nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to restrict the right of the state to amend, modify, repeal or otherwise alter statutes imposing or relating to the taxes payable to the New York city transitional finance authority pursuant to section thirteen hundred thirteen of the tax law, but such taxes shall in all events continue to be so payable so long as any such taxes are imposed. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to obligate the state to make any additional payments or impose any taxes to satisfy the debt service obligations of the metropolitan transportation authority.

- 5. Moneys in the low-income resident reduced fare account shall be used to fund the half-fare rate program for low-income residents of the city of New York pursuant to subdivision nine of section twelve hundred five of this article and may be used for payment of the reasonable operating costs incurred by the New York city transit authority for the administration of the half-fare rate program, provided that no more than one percent of the moneys deposited into the low-income resident reduced fare account pursuant to subdivision six of this section shall be used for such costs.
- 6. The moneys deposited into the fund from the New York city transitional finance authority shall be equally divided between the transit infrastructure improvement account and the low-income resident reduced fare account.
- 7. Twice each calendar year, the mayor of the city of New York shall conduct a review of the amount of moneys deposited in each of the two accounts. To the extent such review indicates that:
- a. the moneys in the transit infrastructure improvement account are sufficient to satisfy the requirements of any debt service incurred in such calendar year as a result of obligations issued and secured pursuant to paragraph b of subdivision three of this section, and the moneys in the low-income resident reduced fare account are insufficient to satisfy the total needs of the low-income resident reduced fare program established pursuant to subdivision nine of section twelve hundred five of this article, the mayor of the city of New York, or such mayor's designee, may direct the metropolitan transportation authority to transfer a specified amount of moneys from the transit infrastructure improvement account to the low-income resident reduced fare account; and b. the moneys in the low-income resident reduced fare account are sufficient to satisfy the needs of the half-fare rate program for lowincome residents of the city of New York established pursuant to subdivision nine of section twelve hundred five of this article, in such calendar year, the mayor of the city of New York, or such mayor's designee, may direct the metropolitan transportation authority to transfer a specified amount of moneys from the low-income resident reduced fare account to the transit infrastructure improvement account.
- 3. Subdivision 5 of section 2799-hh of the public authorities law, as added by chapter 16 of the laws of 1997, is amended to read as follows:
- 5. Tax revenues received by the authority pursuant to section thirteen hundred thirteen of the tax law, together with any alternative revenues received by the authority, shall be applied in the following order of priority: first pursuant to the authority's contracts with bondholders, then to pay the authority's operating expenses not otherwise provided for, then to a dedicated personal income tax surcharge fund pursuant to 52 subsection (d) of section thirteen hundred four-E of the tax law in the 53 amount provided for in such section, and then pursuant to the authori-54 ty's agreements with the city, which agreements shall require the authority to transfer the balance of such taxes not required to meet contractual or other obligations of the authority to the city as 2 frequently as practicable.

- 3 § 4. The tax law is amended by adding a new section 1304-E to read as 4 follows:
- § 1304-E. Tax surcharge for transit infrastructure improvements and reduced fares for low-income residents of the city of New York. (a) In addition to the taxes authorized by subsection (a) of section thirteen hundred one of this article, any city imposing such taxes is hereby 9 authorized and empowered to adopt and amend local laws imposing in any such city for each taxable year beginning after two thousand seventeen, 11 a tax surcharge on the city taxable income of certain city resident 12 individuals, estates and trusts.
- (b) A tax surcharge imposed pursuant to the authority of this section 14 shall be determined as follows:
 - (1) Resident married individuals filing joint returns and resident surviving spouses. The tax surcharge under this section on the city taxable income of certain city resident married individuals who make a single return jointly with his or her spouse under subsection (b) of section thirteen hundred six of this article and on the city taxable income of certain city resident surviving spouses shall be determined in accordance with the following table:
- For taxable years beginning after two thousand seventeen: 22
- 23 If the city taxable income is: The tax surcharge is:
- 24 .534% of excess over $1,000,000 Over $1,000,000
- 25 (2) Resident heads of households. The tax surcharge under this section 26 on the city taxable income of certain city resident heads of households 27 shall be determined in accordance with the following table:
 - For taxable years beginning after two thousand seventeen:
- 29 If the city taxable income is: The tax surcharge is:
- 30 Over $750,000 .534% of excess over $750,000
 - (3) Resident unmarried individuals, resident married individuals filing separate returns and resident estates and trusts. The tax surcharge under this section on the city taxable income of certain city resident individuals who are not city resident married individuals who make a single return jointly with his or her spouse under subsection (b) of section thirteen hundred six of this article or city resident heads of households or city resident surviving spouses, and on the city taxable income of certain city resident estates and trusts shall be determined in accordance with the following table:
 - For taxable years beginning after two thousand seventeen:
- 41 If the city taxable income is: The tax surcharge is:
- 42 Over $500,000 .534% of excess over $500,000
- 43 (c) A tax surcharge imposed pursuant to the authority of this section shall be administered and collected in the same manner as the taxes 44 45 imposed pursuant to the authority of this article, and all of the 46 provisions of this article, including section thirteen hundred ten, 47 shall apply to the tax surcharge imposed pursuant to the authority of 48 this section.
- 49 (d) Subject to the priority of payments identified in section twentyseven hundred ninety-nine-hh of the public authorities law, the New York 50 51 city transitional finance authority shall transfer to the metropolitan 52 transportation authority the amount estimated by the mayor of the city 53 of New York to be the amount received by the New York city transitional 54 finance authority from the tax surcharge imposed pursuant to the authority of this section, up to the total amount available after deducting 55

ity pursuant to this section and subsection (c) of section thirteen hundred thirteen of this article amounts to be paid pursuant to the New 3 York city transitional finance authority's contracts with bondholders 4 and the New York city transitional finance authority's operating 5 expenses not otherwise provided for. After the mayor of the city of New 6 York has received data from the department allowing such mayor to deter-7 mine the actual amount of revenues received by the New York city transi-8 tional finance authority that are attributable to the tax surcharge imposed pursuant to the authority of this section, such mayor shall 9 10 inform the New York city transitional finance authority of such actual 11 amount, minus any actual operating costs assumed by the city of New York attributable to the half-fare rate program pursuant to subdivision nine 12 13 of section twelve hundred five of the public authorities law, and the 14 New York city transitional finance authority shall adjust the next 15 payment to be made to the metropolitan transportation authority pursuant 16 to this section to reflect any difference between such actual amount 17 minus such operating costs and the estimate previously provided by such 18

- (e) Any revenues transferred to the metropolitan transportation authority pursuant to subsection (d) of this section shall be paid into a dedicated personal income tax surcharge fund to be used exclusively for the financing of transit infrastructure improvements and reduced fares for low-income residents of the city of New York in accordance with the provisions of section twelve hundred seventy-i of the public authorities law. Such revenues shall only supplement and shall not supplant any federal, state, or local funds expended by the metropolitan transportation authority for New York city transit authority, the metropolitan transportation authority bus company or Staten Island rapid transit operating authority projects, and shall not affect any payment by the city of New York pursuant to agreements relating to the metropolitan transportation authority bus company and Staten Island rapid transit operating authority.
- § 5. Paragraphs 1 and 2 of subsection (e) of section 1310 of the tax law, as added by chapter 481 of the laws of 1997, are amended to read as 34 follows:
- 36 (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, any 37 city imposing a tax under this article is hereby authorized and 38 empowered to adopt and amend local laws for any taxable year beginning after nineteen hundred ninety-seven, as specified in such local laws, 39 providing for a credit as provided in paragraph two of this subsection 40 41 against the taxes imposed pursuant to the authority granted by section 42 thirteen hundred one of this article on the city taxable income determined pursuant to sections thirteen hundred four, thirteen hundred 43 44 four-A [and], thirteen hundred four-B and thirteen hundred four-E of 45 this article and on the ordinary income portion of a lump sum distrib-46 ution determined pursuant to section thirteen hundred one-B of this 47 article, to any city resident individual, estate or trust whose city adjusted gross income includes income, gain, loss or deductions from one 48 or more unincorporated businesses conducted by such city resident indi-49 50 vidual, estate or trust on which a tax is imposed by chapter five of 51 title eleven of the administrative code of the city of New York, or a 52 distributive share of income, gain, loss and deductions of, or guaranteed payments from, one or more partnerships on which a tax is imposed 54 by such chapter. Any such local laws may contain provisions to ensure that such credit shall not reduce the tax paid by a city resident below 55

- (2) (A) Subject to the limitation set forth in subparagraph (B) of this paragraph, the credit allowed to a taxpayer for a taxable year shall be equal to all or a portion of the amount determined in paragraph three of this subsection, provided, however, such portion shall not be less than:
- (i) If the city taxable income is forty-two thousand dollars or less, sixty-five percent of the amount determined in paragraph three of this subsection.
- (ii) If the city taxable income is greater than forty-two thousand dollars but not greater than one hundred forty-two thousand dollars, a percentage of the amount determined in paragraph three of subsection to be determined by subtracting from sixty-five percent, one tenth of a percentage point (.001) for every increment of two hundred dollars, or fractional part thereof, of city taxable income in excess of forty-two thousand dollars.
- (iii) If the city taxable income is greater than one hundred forty-two thousand dollars, fifteen percent of the amount determined in paragraph three of this subsection.
- (B) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in subparagraph (A) this paragraph, the credit allowed to a taxpayer for a taxable year under this subsection shall not exceed the sum of the taxes that would otherwise be imposed on such taxpayer for such taxable year pursuant to the authority granted by section thirteen hundred one of this article on the city taxable income determined pursuant to sections thirteen hundred four, thirteen hundred four-A [and], thirteen hundred four-B and thirteen hundred four-E of this article and on the ordinary income portion of a lump sum distribution determined pursuant to section thirteen hundred one-B of this article, reduced by the credits allowed to such taxpayer pursuant to subsections (a), (c) and (d) of this section.
- § 6. The opening paragraph of subsection (c) of section 1313 of tax law, as amended by section 8 of part C of chapter 58 of the laws of 2005, is amended to read as follows:
- Subject to the provisions of subsection (g) of this section, the comptroller, after reserving such refund fund and such costs shall, commencing on or before the fifteenth day of each month, pay to the New York city transitional finance authority on a daily basis the balance of taxes imposed pursuant to the authority of this article or former article two-E of the general city law to be applied by the authority, in the following order of priority: first pursuant to the authority's contracts with bondholders, then to pay the authority's operating expenses not otherwise provided for, then to a dedicated personal income tax fund pursuant to subsection (d) of section thirteen hundred four-E of this article and then pursuant to the authority's agreements with the city, which agreements shall require the authority to transfer the balance of such taxes not required to meet contractual or other obligations of the authority to the city as frequently as practicable; except that the comptroller shall:
- § 7. The administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding a new section 11-1704.2 to read as follows:
- § 11-1704.2 Tax surcharge for transit infrastructure improvements and reduced fares for low-income residents of the city. (a) In addition to 54 the taxes imposed by sections 11-1701, 11-1703, 11-1704 and 11-1704.1 of this subchapter, there is hereby imposed for each taxable year beginning
